

Middle School Education

Inclusive in this major's description are fifth through ninth grade teachers with concentration areas in: business education, language arts, mathematics, science, social studies, and speech/theater. Some teachers may work in private schools, while others are employed within the public school system.

The tables below are not inclusive but provide a basic listing of career opportunities available to a Middle School Education major.

Positions for those with a Bachelor's in Middle School Education include:

Fifth through Ninth Grade Teacher	Trainer	Human Resources
Teacher	Research & Writer	Trainer

Positions that may require a Master's or Doctorate include:

Administrator	Professor
---------------	-----------	--

More information can be found by utilizing the Internet resources:

World Wide Learn www.worldwidelearn.com/education

Occupational Outlook Handbook www.bls.gov/ooh/education-training-and-library/home.htm

Academic Careers Online www.academiccareers.com

Teacher Jobs www.teacherjobs.com

Mission Teach www.missionteach.com

Women in Higher Education www.wihe.com

Missouri REAP www.moreap.net

Kansas Teaching Jobs www.kansasteachingjobs.com

Missouri Dept. of Elementary & Secondary Education www.dese.mo.gov

Counseling & Career Services
Hodes Center 118
816-501-2901