

Human Resources

With a Bachelor of Science in Human Resources, you will have all the critical skills and knowledge that employers are looking for to help them meet the challenges of managing and developing people. An effective and informed leader in the Human Resources department is critical for any thriving workplace.

The tables below are not inclusive but provide a basic listing of career opportunities available to the Human Resources major.

Positions for those holding a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources include:

Recruiter	Benefits Administrator	Labor Relations
Job Analysis Specialist	Ombudsman	HR Generalist
HR Manager	Educational Consultant	Arbitrator
Training & Development Manager	Employment Interviewer

Positions that may require a Master's or Doctorate include:

Chief Executive of Administration	Attorney	Vice President of Human Resources
-----------------------------------	----------	-----------------------------------

More information can be found by utilizing these Internet resources:

Occupational Outlook Handbook www.bls.gov/oco

O*Net OnLine <http://online.onetcenter.org/>

Human Resources Jobs www.hrjobs.org

SHRM (Society for HR Management) www.shrm.org

Society for Human Resource Management of Greater Kansas City www.hrma-kc.org

Society for Human Resource Management of Johnson County www.hrmajc.com

HR Certification Institute www.hrci.org

Kansas City Compensation and Benefits Association www.kccba.com

American Society for Training & Development (ASTD) www.astd.org

Workforce HR Jobs www.workforcehrjobs.com

AVILA UNIVERSITY
Counseling & Career Services
Hodes Center 118
816-501-2901