UNIVERSITY WIDE OUTCOMES (New Core Curriculum)

Through the Avila University curriculum, which integrates CSJ values, global and interdisciplinary studies, and civic engagement, the Avila University graduate will demonstrate:

1. Personal, spiritual, ethical, professional, and social responsibility aligned with the values of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet including support for diverse cultures, human rights, and right relationships with self, others, and the earth, instilled in this context through familiarity with a diverse array of disciplines and perspectives.

2. Effective use and communication of qualitative and quantitative information.

3. Critical thinking, problem-solving, creativity, and innovation by accessing, synthesizing, and applying information from and for various mediums and across technologies, incorporating global perspectives.
