The International Convention for the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide defines “genocide.”

1. ‘In the present Convention, genocide means any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such:
  - a. Killing members of the group;
  - b. Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;
  - c. Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
  - d. Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
  - e. Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group.’”
2. The crime of genocide is defined by the Genocide Convention as “acts of genocide.” It does not exist apart from those acts.

Consider the definition above while listening to the video clip:

Watch the clip twice- During the first viewing just listen and consider what Christine Shelley is saying compared to the definition above.

During the second viewing, jot down some notes about the following prompts:

1. I wonder...

2. I noticed...

3. I’m confused by...
