Driving Question: "Can art make a difference?"

Art/JAG PBL p. 3

Your art piece for social justice

"Final art project can be made with one or a mixture of multiple medias including colored pencil, marker, acrylic paint, watercolor, photography, or digital illustration. The organization's name and mission statement should be stated somewhere on your piece. It should be visually appealing, using multiple Elements of Art. Use at least 3 images to represent and promote the purpose of your organization. The final project will include a written Artist Statement explaining your artistic choices."

Here are the requirements for this piece of art you are about to create. You can have more than this, but you can't have less.
