GENERAL INFORMATION

Introducing Avila University

Avila University is a Catholic, co-educational University with liberal arts and professional programs. It is situated on 50 rolling acres in south Kansas City, Missouri. Avila University was founded in 1916 and is sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

From its modest beginnings, Avila has become a flourishing, comprehensive University offering a variety of degree programs. Founded as the College of St. Teresa, the college grew and expanded to a larger campus in 1963. It was at this time that the college name was changed to Avila to honor St. Teresa of Avila. In 2002, Avila College became Avila University, a name reflecting its growth and development as an institution of higher education.

Avila University’s commitment to excellence, to service of students and the community, to quality education of spirit, mind, and body, and to the growth of the whole person is deeply rooted in its Catholic heritage and in the lives and beliefs of the founding Sisters of St. Joseph.

Students, faculty and staff at Avila University provide a supportive, caring yet challenging environment in which students receive close personalized attention.

A strong emphasis is placed on integrating the liberal arts into all programs in order to prepare students for a lifetime of personal fulfillment and career growth. Carefully-planned courses in the humanities, arts, natural and social sciences are designed to develop each student’s ability to think critically, analyze written material and write and speak effectively. At Avila University, students acquire those skills necessary for success in a chosen career as well as preparation for graduate or professional studies.

Mission Statement of Avila University

Avila University, a Catholic University sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, is a values-based community of learning providing liberal arts, professional, undergraduate and graduate education to prepare students for responsible lifelong contributions to the global community. (adopted 1986; reviewed 1995; revised 2005)
Purposes of Avila University

• Pursue academic excellence by providing an educational experience rooted in the Catholic tradition and in the spirit of the Sisters of St. Joseph, both of which emphasize collaboration, examination of social justice issues, responsiveness to needs of others, and respect for the worth and dignity of each individual.
• Offer liberal arts and professional undergraduate and graduate programs grounded in scholarship with well-defined educational outcomes which emphasize communication and thinking skills, knowledge, and personal, social and spiritual development of each student.
• Strive for excellence through responsiveness to on-going assessment, evaluation, and self-reflection.
• Promote student learning by emphasizing teaching-learning strategies which actively engage the student in the learning process.
• Foster development of the whole person for life-long learning and service to the global community through curricular and co-curricular programs.
• Address the broader educational needs of the greater Kansas City area by exploring, initiating, and supporting partnerships within the community. (adopted 1996; revised 2005)

Value Statements of Avila University

The Avila Community Values . . .
• Excellence in teaching and learning
• The Catholic identity of the University
• The sponsorship and contributions of the Sisters of St. Joseph
• The worth, dignity and potential of each human being
• Diversity and its expression
• Commitment to the continual growth of the whole person
• Interaction with and service to others (adopted 1988; reviewed 1996, 2005)

History of Avila University

The Sisters of St. Joseph were founded in LePuy, France, in 1650 to serve their neighbors by responding to the needs of society. In 1836, six Sisters arrived in America and traveled up the Mississippi to St. Louis, Missouri, and settled in a small town south of the city known as Carondelet. These women established several schools and were soon known as the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

In 1866, five Sisters came to Kansas City and opened the first private high school for young women, St. Teresa’s Academy. In 1916, the academy administration chartered the first private college for women in Kansas City, St. Teresa College, and offered a two-year program leading to an Associate of Arts Degree. Fifteen years later, St. Joseph’s Hospital School of Nursing became affiliated with the college and nursing students were enrolled in basic science and humanities courses.

In 1940, the college was expanded to a four-year liberal arts college with professional programs in nursing, education and business. It was fully accredited by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools in 1946 and was called the College of St. Teresa.

The college established one of Kansas City’s first baccalaureate degree programs in nursing in 1948 and was accredited by the National League for Nursing in 1966. Additional programs in allied health, social work, and special education were developed to complement strong programs in the liberal arts.

The growth of the college resulted in a move to its present campus in 1963, which is located in suburban South Kansas City, three miles from Interstate 435. Seeking to serve a diverse population, the college became co-educational in 1969, established graduate programs in business, education and psychology in 1978, and began Kansas City’s first Weekend College in 1984.

Owing to its continued growth as a comprehensive institution of higher learning during the 1990s, offering undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs, Avila became, in 2002, Avila University.

Since its founding in 1916, Avila University has been committed to excellence in teaching and learning in an environment that respects the uniqueness of each person and stresses responsible service to others.

The Library is a member of MOBIUS, a statewide consortium of over 50 academic libraries with a shared on-line catalog. The Library subscribes to on-line search services DIALOG and WESTLAW as well as providing student access to the bibliographic databases FirstSearch, ERIC, and Modern Language Association databases. In addition, the Library provides access to full-text and bibliographic databases such as EBSCOhost, Academic Universe, Contemporary Women’s Issues, NewsBank: Missouri Newspapers, the ABC-CLIO databases, ProQuest Psychology and PsycArticles. The Eschbacher Education Room houses the children’s literature and Curriculum Collections. There are study rooms available for faculty and student use. In addition the Library houses an information commons with over 20 PCs connected to the campus network and providing e-mail and Internet access, Microsoft Office and curriculum related software as well as digital camcorders, tripods and software for class projects. The Library is designed to provide an environment conducive to learning and research in an age that merges written and electronic media.

Academic Technology Facilities

Avila University maintains several computer labs and classrooms to support teaching and learning. Labs are home to both PC and Macintosh computers, color monitors, and laser printers. Each computer lab facility is upgraded on a regular basis and is network supported so students and faculty can access specialty software, internet resources, and Microsoft Office products.

MyAU is Avila’s web portal. MyAU is an online web tool allowing students, faculty and staff to communicate in a variety of ways. Students can also request transcripts, print enrollment verifications, make tuition payments and quickly find an assortment of resources and available services. Faculty can enter attendance and grades for current students, and review their advisees’ academic records. Administrators can post documents, announcements and events for the Avila Community. MyAU is available via the Avila University web site home page at www.avila.edu.

An Avila Email Account is where a student will receive all official email correspondence from the University. Students may also use it to communicate with instructors and fellow students. It is the student’s responsibility to check their Avila Email on a regular basis. The student email address is formatted as last name and Student ID Number@avila.edu.

Computer labs are located in the following locations:

Hooley-Bundschu Library: A dedicated open information commons for student use consisting of over 20 Dell computers and laser printers. Additional laptops for student research are located on the main library floor. An iMac computer is available to support the development of a large variety of presentational formats.

O’Rielly Hall: Three dedicated classroom labs are located in this hall. Two classrooms have 22 Dell computers each. Another classroom, with 12 Dell computers, is dedicated for teaching Mathematics and Computer Science courses. Each classroom has Microsoft Office software, SPSS, internet access, and other specialty teaching software available.

Borserine Nursing Center: Seven Dell computers are located in the Nursing Education and Resource Center. Software is available to support nursing education in addition to Microsoft Office and internet resources.

Dallavis Center: Two computer labs are housed in Dallavis. The Macintosh lab consists of 20 iMac computers with 20” monitors. Software includes Creative Suite, Macromedia Studio, Microsoft Office, and other software needed to support Graphics Design and Communication majors. The Communication lab houses 12 G5 dual-processor Macs with Final Cut Pro to support video editing and other Communication program endeavors.

Hodes Center & Residence Halls: Hodes Center and residence halls are equipped with Dell computers and laser printers for student use.

In addition to computer facilities, computers, projectors, and other audio-visual equipment are available to support teaching and student presentations.

Faculty

The Avila University faculty is made up of 123 full-time equivalent professors. Seventy-six percent of the full-time faculty hold Ph.D. degrees or terminal degrees in their field and teach introductory as well as advanced courses. Avila’s adjunct faculty practitioners are chosen for their ability to teach in specialized areas.

The faculty is committed to excellence in teaching. Research and publication are also valued especially when collaboration between students and faculty is involved. The Avila University faculty is dedicated to life-long learning, professional growth, and excellence in the classroom.

Student Body

Avila University’s 1,800 students come from the Kansas City Metropolitan area as well as 25 other states and 27 countries. They range in age from 17 to 75. Some reside on campus and others commute to classes. Over 95% of the full-time students receive some type of financial aid. Avila University students major in one of 35 undergraduate and 6 graduate programs doing clinical work or internships in numerous agencies and businesses throughout the metropolitan area.

Alumni Association

The purpose of the Avila University Alumni Association is to maintain, enhance and perpetuate a mutually beneficial and enduring relationship among alumni, the University, and their respective communities. Any former student who has completed twenty-four (24) semester hours of undergraduate coursework or twelve (12) semester hours of graduate coursework at Avila is considered an alumnus/a. The Alumni Association Board serves as an advisory board to the Alumni Office and seeks to cultivate close relationships and foster loyalty and service to the University.

University Policies

Avila University is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is committed to achieving and maintaining equal opportunity in employment and personnel actions and procedures including, but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, training, transfer, promotion, compensation and services.

Further, Avila University is committed to non-discrimination and equal opportunity to its students including but not limited to recruitment, admissions, financial aid, educational policies, placement services, housing, athletics, sponsorship, conduct of co-curricular activities, and other University administered programs and services.

These policies for students, faculty, and staff are to be administered without regard to gender, race, religion, age, color, sexual orientation, disability, national origin or ethnic origin, genetic information or any other characteristic protected by law. Any concerns regarding discrimination should be addressed to the director of human resources in the Business Office, Blasco Hall, (816) 501-3618. Good faith concerns can be raised without fear of reprisal.

Anti-harassment/Anti-discrimination Policy

Avila University’s policy is to maintain an environment for all of our employees and students that is free of unlawful harassment, illegal discrimination, and unprofessional conduct. It is never justifiable to harass one of our employees or students because of their race, color, gender, religion, national origin, age, disability or sexual orientation. Unlawful harassment is counterproductive and does not serve the principles on which Avila University operates. We respect the dignity and worth of each employee and student. We believe that each employee and student should be free to develop fully his or her potential, neither hindered by artificial barriers nor aided by factors that are not related to merit. Avila University also prohibits unprofessional conduct and comments that may not amount to unlawful harassment. All employees are expected to use good judgment and to avoid even the appearance of impropriety in all of their dealings with other employees and students. Supervisory employees especially must exhibit the highest degree of personal integrity at all times, refraining from any behavior that might be harmful to their subordinates, students, or the University.

Racial, Religious, Sexual Orientation, or National Origin Harassment

Racial, religious, sexual orientation, or national origin harassment is expressly prohibited. Racial, religious, sexual orientation, or national origin harassment includes any oral statement, written statement, or physical act in which race, religion, sexual orientation, or national origin is used or implied in a manner that make another person uncomfortable in the work or educational environment or that would interfere with another person’s ability to perform his or her job. Examples of racial, religious, sexual orientation, or national origin harassment include jokes that include reference to race, religion, sexual orientation, or national origin; the display or use of objects or pictures that adversely reflect on a person’s race, religion, sexual orientation, or national origin; or use of language that is offensive due to a person’s race, religion, sexual orientation, or national origin.

Sexual Harassment
Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, which is illegal under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 for employees and under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 for students. Sexual harassment is also illegal under Missouri State Law and prohibited by Avila University. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:

- submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; or
- submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as the basis for an employment decision affecting the harassed employee; or
- such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with the employee’s work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; or
- submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a condition of a student’s participation in a school program or activity or the basis for an educational decision affecting a student; or
- such conduct is so severe, persistent or pervasive that it affects a student’s ability to participate in or benefit from an education program or activity or creates an intimidating, threatening, or abusive educational environment.

Prohibited acts of sexual harassment can take a variety of forms, ranging from off-color jokes to subtle pressure for sexual activity to physical assault. It is not possible to identify each and every act that may constitute sexual harassment. Examples of conduct that may constitute sexual harassment are:

- repeated or unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, propositions, touching, remarks or requests for sexual favors;
- repeated verbal abuse of a sexual nature;
- graphic verbal comments about a person’s body;
- sexually degrading words used to describe a person;
- the display of sexually suggestive objects or pictures;
- slurs, “off color” jokes, or degrading comments related to gender;
- demeaning, discourteous conduct or negative stereotyping; or
- a sexual relationship with a subordinate or a student.

No Retaliation
It is strictly against University policy to retaliate against anyone who reports or assists in making a complaint of prohibited harassment. Retaliation is contrary to this policy statement and may result in discipline up to and including termination for employees and dismissal for students. Anyone who feels that retaliatory action has been taken because of his or her report or assistance in making a complaint of prohibited harassment should immediately bring the matter to the University’s attention as described below.

How to Report Instances of Harassment or Retaliation
The University cannot resolve matters that are not brought to its attention. Any student or employee, regardless of position, who has a complaint of or who witnesses harassment or retaliation at work by anyone, including instructors, students, supervisors, managers, employees, or even non-employees, has a responsibility to immediately bring the matter to the University’s attention. If the complaint or observation involves someone in the employee’s direct line of command or if the employee is uncomfortable discussing the matter with his or her direct supervisor, the employee is urged to go to another supervisor, to a University vice president, or to the director of human resources. If the complaint or observation involves a student, the report should go to the vice president for academic affairs or the dean of students. Student-to-student harassment complaints may be referred to the disciplinary system in the school’s Student Code of Conduct for the appropriate investigation and resolution of such complaints.

How the University Will Investigate Complaints
The University will thoroughly and promptly investigate all claims of harassment or retaliation. A complainant will be given the opportunity to provide a good faith list of persons who may have information regarding the subject matter of the complaint, and those persons will be contacted by a representative of the University. If an investigation confirms that harassment or retaliation has occurred, the University will take prompt, corrective action, as is appropriate. Complaints of harassment and retaliation will be kept as confidential as possible.

Avila University’s Commitment to an Effective No Harassment Policy
If you feel that the University has not met its obligations under this policy, you should contact the Department of Human Resources.

Sexual Assault
All forms of sexual assault, including rape and other unwanted sexual contact, will not be tolerated by Avila University. The University is committed to fostering and maintaining a safe environment for all of its students and employees. Violation of the University’s policy on sexual assault will result in strict disciplinary action including possible dismissal or suspension from the University.
Missouri Revised Statutes
Chapter 566 of the Missouri Revised Statutes defines sexual offenses. It lists the sections and degrees of sex crimes. Sexual assault is a criminal act carrying a penalty of varying degrees.

For more detailed information on this Chapter 566 of the Missouri Revised Statutes, contact Campus Security at (816) 985-6079 or refer to http://www.moga.mo.gov/statutes/c566.htm

Sexual Misconduct offenses include, but are not limited to the following:

Sexual Misconduct—Sexual misconduct is defined as engaging in sexual intercourse by a man or woman upon a man or woman without consent or engaging in deviate sexual intercourse (sodomy) with another person without that person’s consent. Such actions may include any sexual intercourse however slight with any object.

Sexual Assault and Sodomy—Rape is defined as engaging in sexual intercourse or deviate sexual intercourse (sodomy) by forcible compulsion or by engaging in such action with a person who is incapable of consent.

Sexual Abuse and Aggravated Sexual Abuse—Sexual abuse and aggravated sexual abuse are defined as subjecting another person to sexual contact by forcible compulsion or subjecting another person who is incapable of consent to sexual contact.

Sexual Harassment—
• Unwelcome, gender based verbal and physical conduct that is,
• Sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive that it,
• Unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits someone’s ability to participate in or benefit from the university’s educational program and/or activities, and is
• Based on power differentials (quid pro quo), the creation of a hostile environment, or retaliation

Sexual Exploitation—Occurs when a student takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses.

Information and Workshops
The University offers a number of programs over the course of the academic year, addressing sexual assault and related topics. A specific program is presented to all new incoming students during fall orientation. Further programming is offered by various offices and student organizations including Residence Life, the Counseling and Career Services, and Campus Safety. Pursuant to federal law, students and employees will be educated and updated about security procedures, personal safety, crime prevention and sexual assaults in all ways that are necessary and appropriate to alert the University community. This may include: posting appropriate flyers, mass e-mail messages, classroom announcements and emergency meetings.

What is Sexual Assault?
Sexual assault isn’t about love or lust—sexual assault is a crime. It is sexual violence directed at an individual. It involves the use of force or coercion or involves the threat of force to the point an individual feels physically or emotionally powerless. Sexual assault is an expression of hostility, aggression and dominance. It is any sexual act that is committed against an individual without the person’s consent.

Date or Acquaintance Rape
The most common form of sexual assault on University campuses is date/acquaintance rape. Date rape occurs when your date forces you to have unwanted sexual activity. This may include touch, penetration, forcing you to touch him/her or being forced to pose for sexually explicit photos. While date rape involves sexual activity, it is used as a means to gain power and control. If you find yourself in a situation that is making you uncomfortable, listen to your instincts. Get to a safe place right away.

Sexual assault is not isolated to women. Men can be raped. A man’s body will respond to stimuli. This does not mean that the experience was enjoyable, but only that the body responded to the touches. Rape or sexual misconduct is no less a crime when it happens to a man.

Verbal Assault
Verbal Assault, without accompanying physical contact, is not sexual assault, but may fit the criteria for sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is also prohibited by the University’s Code of Conduct.

Additional information is available in the Student Handbook on Sexual Harassment policy.

Ways to Protect Yourself
There are some practical steps you can take that may decrease the risk of sexual assault.
• Express your expectations and limits clearly before you get into a sexual situation.
• Limit alcohol and drug use. They make it more difficult for you to be in control. Never ride with someone who has used alcohol or drugs.
• Avoid meeting in secluded places and walking alone. If you are concerned, ask Campus Security to escort you.
• Try to be aware of attitudes that your date expresses concerning women or men: hostility, unrealistic views of women or men and/or viewing people as “sex objects.”
• Use assertive language such as, “I feel uncomfortable when you don’t listen to me or when you touch me like that.”
• Scream “fire” (rather than “rape” or “help”), if you need assistance.
• Be alert to what is happening around you.

What Do I Do If I Am Sexually Assaulted?
1. Go with your instincts. Whatever you decide to do is a decision you must feel comfortable with. Your goal is to survive and escape safely. You will react to the crime in the way that makes the most sense to you at the time.
2. Get to a safe place—a friend’s house or any place where people can give you emotional support.
3. Call Metropolitan Organization to Counter Sexual Assault (MOCSA): 24-hour Crisis Line: 816-531-0233 or 913-642-0233 or Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network (RAINN): 24-hour Phone Hotline: 1-800-656-HOPE (4673) or 24-hour Online Hotline: https://ohl.rainn.org/online.rainn.org/ for confidential counseling, assistance and referral.
4. Seek medical help immediately for the treatment of any injuries and for tests to check the possibility of pregnancy or sexually transmitted diseases. If you do plan to report the incident to authorities, there is an additional reason to seek medical attention. Medical evidence can be collected. Don’t douche, bathe, shower or change your clothes before seeking medical attention.
5. If you feel comfortable report the incident to Campus Safety and/or police. This is your decision.
6. File a complaint following the judicial process if the perpetrator is part of the Avila community. An investigation for appropriate disciplinary action under the University’s conduct system will occur.
7. Tell your story soon to avoid forgetting details. Alternatively, write out the details for yourself or use a tape recorder.
8. Seek counseling, whether or not you decide to report the crime or participate in legal action. Professional counseling is available through the Counseling and Career Services Center at Avila, MOCSA or RAINN. Counseling can be beneficial as you work through your reaction to sexual assault.
9. Take whatever steps are necessary to work through the assault. This might include talking to your partner, friend or counselor about your feelings. Resume your normal routine as much as possible.

Procedures for Dealing with Sexual Offenses

On-Campus
A student in possible violation of an all-campus regulation is subject to a hearing and possible disciplinary action via the University’s Conduct Process. Refer to the Judicial Process Section of the Student Handbook for a complete explanation of this process. The Dean of Students will assign a designee to investigate and then a different designee will be the hearing officer for grievances brought by students against students.

Appeal Process
The student in possible violation of this policy or the student who filed the complaint may appeal the decision of such a hearing. Refer to Appeal Procedures in the Code of Conduct Section of the Student Handbook for complete appeal criteria and procedure. The Dean of Students will serve as the appeal officer.

Off-Campus
A student who is a victim of sexual assault has an independent right to file a complaint with the Kansas City Police Department. The University, by way of the Campus Safety or Student Development will support the student’s decision to pursue off-campus legal action.

Anonymous Reporting
If the victim does not want to pursue action within the University system or the criminal justice system at this time, she/he may still want to consider having an anonymous report made. A member of the Counseling and Career Services staff or Campus Ministry can report the details of the incident to the Campus Safety without revealing the identity of the victim. The victim will be asked to sign a Complaint Acknowledgement Form, which protects their right to pursue action at a later time, if they so choose. The purpose of an anonymous report is to comply with the victim’s wish to keep the matter private while taking steps to ensure future safety for the victim and others. With such information, the University can keep accurate records about the number of assaults involving students, determine whether there is a pattern of assaults with regard to particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger.

Non-Retaliation
Retaliation against individuals for filing a complaint, reporting an incident of sexual assault, or for participation in an investigation under this policy will be cause for independent disciplinary action.

Campus Resources
Unfortunately, sexual assault is a frightening reality for anyone to have to face alone. But, you are not alone. You can recover from this. Avila University is concerned about your physical and mental well-being, and will be ready to assist you in dealing with the aftermath of a sexual assault.

A victim may request a change to their academic or living arrangements through the Dean of Students. The University will honor such a request as long as such other arrangements are reasonably available. Also, the Counseling and Career Services Office is available if a student desires to process what has occurred and seek professional assistance in coping with the effects of an assault.

Health Service: 501-3668

Tobacco Policy
Smoking, and the use of smokeless tobacco products, is prohibited in all buildings on campus. Members of the Avila community and their guests must exercise courtesy at all times in the use of smoking and smokeless tobacco products in the parking lots. Disposal of smoking and smokeless tobacco materials should be made in the nearest outdoor receptacle provided for that purpose.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
Avila University is in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974. This Act, also known as the Buckley Amendment, helps protect the privacy of student records. The Act provides for the right to inspect and review educational records, to seek to amend those records, and to limit disclosure or information from the records.

Official student records are maintained in the Registration and Student Records Office. Students and parents of dependent students may request to review official educational records under the following procedure.

a. The student must provide a written request to review the education record. Written requests need to identify the record(s) requested for review. Parents of dependent students must supply evidence of the income-tax dependency of the student if the student does not sign a release. If the parent provides documentation, the academic advisor and/or instructor will be notified.

b. An appointment to review the record will be set with the Registrar/Director of the Registration and Student Records Office or with the Vice Provost within 45 days of the date the University received the request.

c. If the student believes that inaccurate or misleading information is contained in the educational record, or that the information is in violation of the student’s rights of privacy, the student may submit a written request to the administrator of the office responsible for that record. The written request submitted should include the part of the record that is believed to need changed and why it is believed the information is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation. The university will investigate the request and notify the student of the decision. If the record is not amended as requested, the student has the right to request a hearing.

d. Institutions may disclose information on a student without violating FERPA if they have designated the information as “directory information.” At Avila University, this includes:

1. Verification of enrollment status including full-time, part-time, graduate, undergraduate, and classification.
2. Student name, major and minor fields of study, academic honors, and degrees.
3. Student address and telephone numbers (only in connection with campus events and to persons with legitimate reason).
4. Student email address (only available to authorized users of the Avila University email system).
5. Dates of attendance.
6. Participation in campus activities and sports.
7. Weight and height of members of athletic teams.
8. Most recent education agency or institution attended and hometown.
9. Student photograph.

Students have the right to “opt out” of providing directory information. Requests to limit the release of directory information must be provided in writing to the Registration and Student Records Office by the end of the second week of each semester.

Institutions may disclose non-directory information without violating FERPA under the following conditions:

- with the student’s written request;
- to school officials with “legitimate educational interests;”
- to parents of dependent students;
- to a person in response to a lawfully issued subpoena or court order.

For questions regarding FERPA, please contact the Registrar or the Academic Affairs Office. Students have the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:
Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-4605

As of January 3, 2012, the U.S. Department of Education’s FERPA regulations expand the circumstances under which your education records and personally identifiable information (PII) contained in such records — including your Social Security Number, grades, or other private information — may be accessed without your consent. First, the U.S. Comptroller General, the U.S. Attorney General, the U.S. Secretary of Education, or state and local education authorities (“Federal and State Authorities”) may allow access to your records and PII without your consent to any third party designated by a Federal or State Authority to evaluate a federal- or state-supported education program. The evaluation may relate to any program that is “principally engaged in the provision of education,” such as early childhood education and job training, as well as any program that is administered by an education agency or institution. Second, Federal and State Authorities may allow access to your education records and PII without your consent to researchers performing certain types of studies, in certain cases even when we object to or do not request such research. Federal and State Authorities must obtain certain use-restriction and data security promises from the entities that they authorize to receive your PII, but the Authorities need not maintain direct control over such entities. In addition, in connection with Statewide Longitudinal Data Systems, State Authorities may collect, compile, permanently retain, and share without your consent PII from your education records, and they may track your participation in education and other programs by linking such PII to other personal information about you that they obtain from other Federal or State data sources, including workforce development, unemployment insurance, child welfare, juvenile justice, military service, and migrant student records systems.

Student Right-to-Know Act
Avila complies with the provisions of the Student Right-to-Know Act of 1990. This Act requires institutions of higher learning who receive Title IV student financial assistance to be responsible for calculating completion of persistence rates, and making them available to current or prospective students through “appropriate publications and mailings.” Requests for copies can be directed to the Registrar.

Financial Report
The annual financial report is available upon request to the Office of the President

Education Pass Rates
Information on the Praxis pass rates for students seeking initial teacher certification, is available on the Avila University web site at http://www.avila.edu/education/title.asp

Crime Awareness and Campus Security
Avila complies with the provisions of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC § 1092(f)). It is committed to assisting all members of the Avila community in providing for their own safety and security. The annual security compliance document is available on the Avila University website at http://www.avila.edu/campuslife/crimestats.asp. Anyone interested may obtain a hardcopy of the report by calling (816) 501-2425. The site contains information on campus security and personal safety, including crime prevention, University police law-enforcement authority, crime reporting policies, disciplinary procedures, and other important matters about security on campus. It also contains statistics for the three previous calendar years on reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by Avila University and on public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

Avila University has created a text message alert service as one method by which members of the Avila community may be contacted in the event of an emergency. Follow the registration link available at www.avila.edu/safe for more information and to sign up.

Additional information on campus security and current safety issues may also be found on www.avila.edu/safe.

Information Technology Policy
The primary purpose of the information technology system on the Avila University campus is for educational related activities. Members of the Avila community must adhere to the following:

System Integrity
1. Ultimate responsibility for proper use and misuse of the system (including all computers, software, related equipment, and the network) lies with each individual user.
2. Actions taken by users that deliberately deny authorized persons access to any aspect of the system are prohibited.
3. Actions taken by users that interfere with or alter the integrity of the University’s equipment or software are prohibited.
4. Intentional actions taken by users that place onto any Avila equipment any icons, or screen-savers or items of a nature that would be considered offensive are prohibited.

Privacy and No Harassment
1. Students are required to respect others’ right to privacy in the electronic forum. Avila University prohibits users of University technology including computers and users of personally owned computers linked via University telecommunications equipment to other systems from violating such rights. This includes, but is not limited to, attempts to read another person’s electronic mail, to access another’s files, to access electronic records containing information concerning another person, use of another person’s e-mail account, and use of another person’s password.

2. Accounts are not to be shared by multiple users.

3. Fraudulent, harassing, nuisance, threatening, offensive or obscene messages and/or materials are not to be displayed, sent with or stored onto any Avila equipment, or displayed with private equipment in any public forum.

4. This policy does not prohibit Avila University from monitoring users of University technology. Users should have no expectation of privacy in Avila owned equipment or technology.

Copyright Observance

1. Avila University purchases or licenses the use of copies of computer software from a variety of outside companies. The University does not own the copyright to this software or its related documentation. Users may not reproduce any portion for use on another computer without permission from Computer Services. Permission is granted only if it complies with the University’s licensing or receives permission from the software developer.

2. Copyright with regards to traditional written materials applies to works in electronic forms. Users must comply with all copyright rules and regulations according to the U.S. Copyright Law.

3. Software may not be loaded and/or saved onto any Avila University equipment without written permission from the Director of Computer Services.

4. Observances or other information regarding misuse of software or related documentation must be reported to the Dean of Students.

Courtesy

1. Users must observe basic technology courtesy with regards to other users. This includes, but is not limited to, refraining from excessive use of paper, refraining from making electronic mass mailings for non-University business use, and refraining from using University-owned computers or other technology for personal monetary gain.

2. The primary purpose of University-owned computers on the campus is for educational purposes. Users needing the computers for academic purposes will have priority over users playing games, in chat rooms, sending personal e-mails, or other personal uses.

Enforcement

Avila University may monitor and record usage of network resources. Information gained in this way may be used in disciplinary and/or criminal proceedings. Violations of this policy will be reported to the Dean of Students. The above listed items of prescribed conduct are not intended to be all inclusive. Any behavior that is contrary to the ethical use of Avila computer technology will be subject to disciplinary action.

Student Development

The mission of the Division of Development, affirming the University’s mission, is to promote student growth by serving, educating and developing students to become contributing members of the local and global community. By serving and partnering with students, the staff in this division of the University strives to represent and advocate for the needs of students, promote a community of respect to affirm the value of each individual and provide and promote services and co-curricular activities which enhance student learning and University identified learning outcomes. The individual departments that make up this large division are described briefly below.

Athletic and Recreation Department

The Athletic and Recreation Department is responsible for the development and administration of an intercollegiate and recreational sports program that provides quality and competitive opportunities for students in a variety of fields. Avila offers intercollegiate women’s competition in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, and volleyball. Intercollegiate opportunities for men’s competition include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf and soccer. In addition, Avila sponsors a spirit squad that includes performance and competitive dance and cheer teams.

The director of athletics and recreation, in conjunction with coaches and staff, coordinates recruitment of student athletes, promotion of athletic and recreation programs, and management of all competitive events, athletic facilities and equipment, including the Mabee Fieldhouse and the Zarda Sports Complex.

The Eagles compete within the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and have a conference affiliation with the Heart of America Athletic Conference.

Avila students, faculty and staff receive free admission to all home athletic contests with a valid Avila ID card.

For more information, please call the Athletic Department at (816) 501-3634.

Athletic and Recreational Facilities

Avila has outstanding athletic and recreational facilities available to students, faculty and staff. Outdoor facilities include the Thomas R. Zarda Family Athletic Complex for baseball, football, soccer, softball and recreational use, as well as practice football fields and the Santa Fe Trail. Indoor facilities within the Mabee Fieldhouse & Pavilion include a competition practice arena for basketball and volleyball, fitness center weight room, indoor batting and golf cage, and men’s and women’s locker rooms.
Bookstore

The campus bookstore operates to meet the needs for course textbooks. In addition, it sells school and office supplies, logo clothing, stamps, and miscellaneous gifts and merchandise. The bookstore is located in the lower level of Marian Center. For more information, please call the bookstore at (816)501-3630 or access the bookstore page on the Avila website.

The bookstore buys back books all year at blue book prices for wholesale companies. However, the last two weeks of each traditional semester are the best times to sell back books and get the most money from the sale. At this time the bookstore is buying for Avila and the wholesale companies.

Campus Life Office

The Campus Life Office includes residence life, student activities and organizations, and new student programs. Drop by the Campus Life Office to arrange for a student activity van, obtain a residence hall contract, learn more about commuter meal plans, join a club, or for information on the Student Code of Conduct, parking regulations or campus crime statistics. For more information, please call (816) 501-3660.

Campus Ministries

Campus Ministries views the development and exploration of “Spiritual Values” as an important part of ongoing and comprehensive formation at Avila. Students are invited to develop their spirituality through communal celebrations, liturgies, interfaith services, social justice awareness, community service, small communities for faith sharing, retreats, pastoral counseling, community nights, and spiritual direction.

Student leadership and involvement is highly encouraged in the variety of ministries offered. Each year students from different religious traditions are chosen as the Campus Ministries Team who, with the director of campus ministries, comprises the leadership team. Whether on the leadership team or not, each of us is called to ministry by virtue of our faith. Although our University is sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph, a community within the Roman Catholic tradition, we welcome all to participate as we explore our spiritual lives together. For more information please call (816) 501-2423.

Counseling & Career Services

Counseling and Career Services is staffed by mental health and career development professional and graduate interns.

Personal counseling services include:
- Personal counseling dealing with a wide range of issues including: anxiety, depression, grief/loss and adjustment
- Support for those struggling with a personal crisis
- Referrals to outside agencies, as appropriate
- Workshops, information sessions and small group sessions

Career services include:
- Major and career decision making assistance
- Advice and resources for gaining practical experience and building skills
- Job-readiness (résumé and cover letter preparation, networking, interview skills, and other aspects of the job search process)
- On-line job posting for on and off-campus part-time and full-time jobs and internships
- Career/job fairs
- Career related programs and workshops

Appointments can be scheduled by contacting 816-501-2901 or stopping by Hodes Center. Walk-in appointments are available.

Counseling services are free, confidential and available to all Avila students. Career services are free, confidential and available to all Avila students and alumni.

Disability Services

Avila University welcomes students with disabilities who can be successful learners and contributors to the Avila community. To apply for accommodations in your learning environment (curricular and co-curricular), please contact Disability Services. The Disability Services staff welcomes questions, issues and concerns. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call Disability Services at (816) 501-3666, or see Web site at www.avila.edu/disability/.

Dining Services

The University, through Great Western, provides a variety of dining services for the campus. The primary dining facility on campus is the dining hall located in Marian Center.

All resident students select a meal plan option. Currently, resident students have the choice of three meal plan options. Complete plan details are available through the Campus Life Office at (816) 501-3660.
Dining room hours are subject to change and are posted outside of the dining hall main entrance. For menu details or operating hours, contact Great Western at (816) 501-3755 or access the dining hall page on the Avila website.

Commuter students, faculty and staff have the opportunity to purchase commuter meal plans. Contracts and information for commuter student and employee plans are available through the Food Service Office.

Health Services
The nurse-directed health center is staffed by registered nurses. Services include:
- minor illness/injury assessment
- treatment with non-prescriptive medications and medical supplies
- immunizations (some with a fee)
- blood pressure/weight monitoring
- emergency care
- referrals to campus resources or appropriate community health care resources
- individual health and wellness counseling
- student health insurance information
- group health and wellness programs or presentations

Appointments can be scheduled by contacting the Hodes Center office manager at 816-501-3666, the nurse at 816-501-3668. Walk-in appointments are available. Health services are free, confidential and available to all Avila students during the Fall and Spring semesters. Services are not available during breaks. For more information, see our website at http://www.avila.edu/wellness/.

International Student Services
International Student Services assists international students with their adjustment to both Avila and the U.S. In addition, students are helped with questions regarding student visa issues and requirements. For further details, contact the ISS Department at (816) 501-3666.

One component of the International Student Services office is the Intensive Language and Culture Program (ILCP). The ILCP is an ESL program. Students study twenty hours of English per week, which includes five hours in each language area: speaking and listening, reading, vocabulary, grammar (structure), and writing (composition). The program features several levels of instruction and small class sizes to ensure personalized attention. Additional English practice is available through one-on-one instruction by faculty and tutors. Students may register for ESL classes and courses in their major during the same semester. Upon successful completion of the ESL program, students may study for a degree full time. In addition, students learn about American customs and idioms, banking, shopping, telephone use, and have access to some local transportation. They also have the opportunity to experience American society through trips to cultural events, entertainment, and sight-seeing destinations. For further details, contact the ILCP office at (816) 501-3771.

Learning Services
To ensure academic success, Avila encourages students to meet with a member of the Learning Services staff for support and advice. Together students and staff will explore such areas as writing, time management, note and test taking, study strategies, and other academic skills.

Peer and Professional Tutors are available to work with students on writing skills and a variety of content areas and to prepare for standardized exams such as C-BASE. Tutoring sessions are available in a variety of formats including individual tutoring, study groups, and small group sessions for test preparation and review.

Tutoring is offered during regular office hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) in the Hodes Center and is also available various evenings each week in the library during the fall and spring semesters. For more information or to schedule an appointment, visit the Learning Services Web site at http://www.avila.edu/ls/. Evening and weekend appointments available if scheduled in advance by calling Learning Services at (816) 501-3666.

Campus Safety
The campus is supported by professional campus safety officers 365 days a year, 24-hours a day. Campus safety officers can be reached immediately at (816) 985-6079.

If the situation calls for immediate emergency response from local authorities, call 911 (Campus phones – dial 9-911).

Officers are also available for escorts on campus, completing incident reports, crime statistics, and safety education. All campus crimes or incidents must be reported to the Campus Safety Office at (816) 985-6079.

Lost and Found items may be recovered from the Campus Safety Department located in Whitfield Center.
Residence Life

As an integral part of the Campus Life Office, the residence hall program strives to complement a student’s academic program through a community living experience. Along with the convenience of living on campus, living in the residence halls allows a student to interact with students of diverse backgrounds, cultural experiences, and lifestyles.

The residence halls consist of a fully air-conditioned environment, featuring student rooms to accommodate approximately 450 students, professional live-in staff and professionally trained student staff. The residence hall complex contains Wi-Fi, lounges, kitchen facilities, laundry facilities, and computers. Each student room comes complete with satellite television service, local telephone service if requested and high-speed Internet services.

Additional information about the residence halls, including the community living standards, staff contact information, and processes and procedures can be found in the Residence Life section of the Student Handbook. To find out how to become more involved in Residence Life, contact the Residence Life Office at (816) 501-2485.

Student Policies

Student Code of Conduct

As a Catholic University, sponsored by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, Avila maintains a position that its educational role is more than an exchange of knowledge and the pursuit of wisdom. Avila is committed to the educational development of the total person and seeks to develop an environment conducive to academic endeavor, social, spiritual, personal, and physical growth with an emphasis on individual self-discipline and responsibility. The Student Code of Conduct serves to create an environment in which students have the best chance to learn, to study, to grow as members of our campus community and the greater global community. This Student Code of Conduct allows members of our diverse community to live in harmony, to interact effectively, and to learn from each other.

The University operates from a value system in which caring, sharing and respect are paramount. While we value diversity and seek to serve all segments of society, we do not aspire to be only a reflection of society. We seek higher goals, with higher values, and higher standards. This is the community that you have chosen, one that expects more from itself, more from one another, and more from you.

It is the intent of this code to set forth in a clear, concise and uniform manner the expectations of students who join the University community and to set forth administrative and judicial procedures whereby those who are accused of violating the rules may be afforded due process.

A complete explanation of the Student Code of Conduct, student policies, and the discipline process is available in the Avila University Student Handbook. Handbooks are available online through the Avila University Web site at http://www.avila.edu/handbook/

Some key student policies are listed below with a complete listing available in the Avila University Student Handbook.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

The misuse of alcohol and other drugs pose major health problems and are potential safety and security problems, can adversely affect academic and job performance, and can generally inhibit the educational development of students.

Avila University, therefore, prohibits the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, or use of illicit drugs and alcohol.

Identification Cards (ID)

All students are required to have an official, validated Avila University ID card. Students shall present their ID card upon request of an authorized official for services, admittance to activities, events, and the use of some facilities. ID cards are required for students on a meal plan to access food service and for resident students to access the residence halls. Some local businesses grant discounts to students who present a valid ID. ID cards must be validated each semester that a student is enrolled at Avila. Replacement ID cards are available at a cost of $20. For more information or for a schedule of times for the ID service, please contact the Campus Safety at (816) 501-2466.

Personal Property Losses

The University is not responsible for the loss or damage to property owned by students or their guests, regardless of the cause.

Admission

The admission procedures and policies of Avila University are designed to assist in the selection of those students who are most likely to benefit from and contribute to the educational opportunities offered at the University.
Persons applying for admission to one of Avila’s graduate programs should follow the admission procedures outlined in the respective section for each of the graduate programs in the Graduate Program/Course section below. Enrichment Students
Enrichment students may take up to nine (9) credit hours of coursework without submitting official transcripts or applying for admission. Enrichment students need permission of the Graduate School to enroll in courses and must meet the prerequisites for the courses for which they wish to enroll. Students must be admitted to a graduate program to enroll in courses that will accumulate more than ten hours of credit.

Visiting Students
Visiting students are students who are seeking a degree at another university and wish to take classes at Avila University. Students must have written permission of their home institution and need permission from the Avila Graduate School to enroll in courses.

Expenses, Payment and Refund Policies

The University year is divided into terms whose length is determined by each individual graduate program. Tuition and fees are the same for audited and credited courses. Accounts must be paid in full at the beginning of each term in order to be considered in good standing.

Basic Expenses (2013-2014)

Tuition per credit hour for Psychology graduate credit ........................................ $485.00
Tuition per credit hour for Avila Advantage graduate credit ................................ $485.00

(per credit hour) ................................................................................................. 75% of current tuition per credit hour
Student Center and Activity Fee (per credit hour) ................................................ $6.00
Technology Fee (per credit hour) ......................................................................... $30.00
For Lab Fees and Miscellaneous Fees see the Semester Class Schedule.
Payment of Accounts

All accounts must be paid in full (via personal payment or financial aid) by the payment due date announced in the class schedule or arrangements must be made to pay in installments through Avila’s Deferred Payment Plan. Early application for financial aid allows the aid to be finalized by the payment due date. Students are responsible for the total tuition and other miscellaneous charges even though a third party may pay the university directly or reimburse the student. In addition to cash, check, or money order Avila University accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express and Diners Club credit cards via on-line payment. A 2.75% convenience fee is assessed on credit card payments. Electronic check payments can be made with no convenience fee. Each student is required to have a signed student payment agreement and guarantee document on file in the Business Office.

Deferred Payment

Through Avila’s Deferred Payment Plan, the tuition and fee balance, after accepted financial aid is applied, may be paid in equal installments throughout the semester/trimester. Payment plan agreements should be selected on-line prior to the beginning of each semester/trimester. If a plan is not selected, the enrollee, by making the first payment of the deferred payment plan, accepts all conditions of the plan. A $75.00 annual plan fee or $50.00 per semester/trimester plan fee is charged. If payments are not made on or before the due dates, a $25.00 late payment penalty is assessed. THE STUDENT’S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE TOTAL CHARGES IS NOT CHANGED BY HAVING SOME PORTION OF THE PAYMENT DEFERRED.

Financial Aid and Loan Recipients

Graduate students will receive their Financial Aid award letters electronically, via their Avila email accounts. If changes are necessary, please send your award letter back to Financial Aid for the revisions you are requesting. If you are accepting all of the aid offered, no response is necessary.

The student will be responsible for any payment due on the scheduled due dates. Loan proceeds must be finalized to be considered as payment on the student account. If finalized financial aid does not cover the semester/trimester balance, personal payment will be due on the scheduled dates. Loan proceeds must be applied to any balance due and any resulting credit balances will be refunded as noted under Credit Balance Refunds.

Please remember: Loans of any type MUST BE REPAID.

Late Payment Penalties

Failure to make arrangements for any payment due on a campus account by the due date will result in one or more of the following actions:
• late payment penalty
• a hold on the student’s record and/or registration
• cancellation of the student’s registration

A student may be reinstated by paying a reinstatement fee; however, the original classes cannot be guaranteed.

REFUNDS

Credit Balance Refunds

Credit balances are available from the Business Office on the following schedule:

Students not receiving federal assistance may request a refund at any time after the second day of classes.

Students receiving any federal assistance (Subsidized and/or Unsubsidized Stafford Loans) will automatically receive a credit balance return on the schedule outlined below. Credit balances resulting from these federal monies must be issued to the student by the 14th day following the beginning of class. Avila University regulations will not permit credit balances generated by loans to be returned until classes have begun and attendance has been verified. In instances where credit balances are created by funds paid from outside sources (such as business, government and banks), the money must first be received by Avila University in order to issue a disbursement check to the student. An authorization to bill an outside source does not create a credit balance.

Adjustment of Tuition and Enrollment Charges

If for any reason a student will not be attending a course, that student must withdraw before the course begins to avoid financial penalty. To withdraw from a course a student must sign a Change of Schedule form, which can be obtained in the Graduate Office of the respective School.

In any instance of adding, dropping or withdrawing courses, the student must complete a Change of Schedule form available in the Registration and Student Records Office and return the form to the Registration and Student Records Office. The date the form is returned and processed in the Registration and Student Records Office is the date used for adjustments to charges. The time periods for the adjustments commence with the first day of classes according to the academic calendar and not the beginning date of the individual courses, unless otherwise noted. Fees are not refundable, except for cancellation of registration.
Cancellation of Registration

The return of any Title IV federal student aid and non-federal student aid will follow the policies listed under Return of Title IV Federal Student Aid.

Withdrawal from Some or All Classes

Classes meeting 11-16 weeks

Students withdrawing from classes will be re-assessed tuition based on the following schedule. The Change of Schedule form must be returned to and processed by the Registration and Student Records Office during the given period to officially re-assess tuition charges. Fees are not refundable.

- 1 through 8 calendar days
  - 100% tuition refund + 100% fees refund
- 9 through 15 calendar days
  - 75% tuition refund - no refund of fees
- 16 through 22 calendar days
  - 50% tuition refund - no refund of fees
- 23 through 29 calendar days
  - 25% tuition refund - no refund of fees

Classes meeting 10 weeks or less

Students who withdraw from classes meeting 10 weeks or less are eligible for refunds under the following schedule:

- Before start of course
  - 100% tuition refund + 100% fees refund
- After first class meeting
  - 75% tuition refund - no refund of fees
- After second, before third class meeting
  - 0% tuition refund - no refund of fees

The return of any Title IV federal student aid and non-federal student aid will follow the policies listed under Return of Title IV Federal Student Aid below.

Weekend and Avila Advantage Classes

See the Avila website at www.avila.edu/registrar/withdraw.asp

REFUND and TUITION ADJUSTMENT APPEAL POLICY

Students who feel their individual circumstances warrant an exception from the above stated refund policies may appeal in writing. The appeal should include a statement of the exception being requested, an explanation as to why an exception should be granted and appropriate materials to support the request for the exception. The appeal letter and supporting materials should be sent to the Academic Affairs Office. Once all appeal materials are complete in the Academic Affairs Office, the student will receive written notification of the decision. The appeal must be received by the Academic Affairs Office within one year after the semester in which the registration occurred.

Return of Student Aid

Return of Title IV Federal Student Aid

Students who withdraw from all courses before 61% of the semester has elapsed will be evaluated according to the Department of Education guidelines and formula as stipulated by the Higher Education Amendments of 1998. Federal aid is earned by the percentage of the payment period the student completes. The percentage of aid earned is derived by dividing calendar days attended in the period by total days in that period. Weekend are included, but scheduled breaks that are at least five (5) days long are excluded. If the student completes more than 60% of the term, 100% of the aid is earned for the period and no immediate repayment obligation results. If the student completes 60% or less of the term, the portion of the federal aid determined to be unearned must be repaid to the federal programs.

The Title IV federal programs that are affected include Stafford Subsidized and Unsubsidized loan programs and the Grad PLUS loan program. Federal aid programs are returned in the following order: Stafford Unsubsidized Loan, Stafford Subsidized Loan, Grad PLUS and other Title IV programs.

Avila will return Title IV aid from the student’s account according to the federal formula. A student may be required to return a Title IV aid overpayment. When a student receives notification from Avila of an overpayment, the student has 45 days to return the funds to the Business Office. Students not complying with the 45-day requirement will be submitted to the Department of Education for collection. The student will be ineligible for further Title IV aid until the overpayment has been paid in full to Avila University and/or satisfactory repayment arrangements have been made with the Department of Education.

The return of enrollment charges policy calculation and applicable institutional refunds will be processed within 30 days of the withdrawal date. A letter indicating the calculation results, any applicable refund or the adjusted statement of charges will be sent to the student’s home address.
Financial Aid

Avila University believes that qualified students should not be denied an educational opportunity due to lack of financial resources, and that financing a student’s education should be a cooperative effort between the student and the institution. While the student’s family has primary responsibility for the student’s education, the University, federal and state governments and other external agencies work as partners in making higher education affordable. The University commits its own scholarship, grant, and work resources to assist qualified students in assembling the resources necessary to pay for an Avila education. Students and families are strongly encouraged to call or visit the Financial Aid Office to engage in this planning process: the office may be reached by phone at 816-501-3600 or via email at finaid@avila.edu. Please note that counseling on debt management and loan repayment is also available to all students attending Avila University.

Detailed information about aid programs and the application process for federal, state, Avila and private assistance is available at www.avila.edu/financialaid.

Application Process for the 2013-2014 Academic Year

Avila University uses the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as its primary application for all federal and state financial aid programs; no supplementary applications are required. Students are encouraged to apply online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The FAFSA is completed using the student’s and parents’ federal income tax returns and should also include Avila University’s School Code (002449). When possible, students should utilize the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to import their tax information from the IRS’s database into the FAFSA.

Avila University does not have established deadlines for processing financial aid. However, students are encouraged to file the 2012-2013 FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1, 2013.

Financial Aid awards will be communicated to the student via the Financial Aid Award Letter. All students will receive their award letter via email to their University email address. The student is then expected to confirm acceptance of the offer of financial aid by returning to the Financial Aid Office a signed copy of the award letter.

Generally, the initial offer of financial assistance delineated in the award letter is non-negotiable. The financial aid package may, however, be altered as a result of one or more of the following conditions:

* Changes in the student’s housing status
* Changes in the student’s enrollment (i.e., credit hours) status
* Lack of satisfactory academic progress
* Receipt of financial aid from an outside source
* Discrepancies noted as a result of the verification process

(Note that the U.S. Department of Education randomly selects one in three FAFSA applications for verification. The verification process entails the comparison of actual financial aid data to that supplied on the FAFSA. Students selected for this process will be notified by the Financial Aid Office and additional documents may be requested.)

Students must submit all documents requested with the financial aid award letter (e.g., IRS tax transcript, copy of birth certificate, etc.). Financial aid packages cannot be finalized, nor aid applied to a student account, until the financial aid file is complete.

Types of Financial Assistance

Financial aid packages at Avila University may be comprised of a combination of grant, scholarship and loan funding. Grants and scholarships are forms of assistance that do not have to be repaid, while loans must be repaid with interest. Interest rates and repayment terms vary as a function of the type of loan a student has secured. The following paragraphs identify and describe the types of funding at Avila University for graduate students.

Private Scholarships

Various service clubs, organizations, churches, schools and industries offer scholarships to students. High school counselors, libraries, and hometown newspapers are often excellent sources for information concerning private scholarships. The Financial Aid Office website provides a listing of various scholarship websites that will enable you to conduct your searches on your own and to apply for these scholarships online. For a complete listing students can visit www.avila.edu/financialaid/outside-scholarships.asp.

Federal Programs

Loans. Students attending Avila University can borrow funds from the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford loan program or through private lenders. Students completing the FAFSA will automatically be awarded all federal loans they are eligible for. Students are encouraged to exhaust federal loan options prior to applying for additional aid through private lenders. Also available is the Federal Direct Graduate PLUS loan which allows students to borrow up to their cost of attendance.

Federal TEACH Grant. Avila University does participate in the Federal TEACH Grant program. This program provides grants of up to $4,000 per year to students who intend to teach in high need fields in a public or private elementary or secondary school that serves students from low-income families. For additional information regarding this program please contact the Financial Aid Office at 816-501-3600.
For additional information regarding state and federal funds please visit the Financial Aid Office website at www.avila.edu/financialaid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress
Federal regulations require institutions to establish minimum standards of satisfactory academic progress for students receiving federal, state and/or institutional financial aid. All aid applicants are required to maintain a designated grade point average (GPA) and satisfactorily complete a percentage of the number of credit hours they attempt. The full Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy is available at www.avila.edu/financialaid/academic-progress-policy.asp.

All students are encouraged to thoroughly read all information sent from the financial aid office including the terms and conditions for all awards prior to accepting their aid. For more information about the financial aid process, visit www.avila.edu/financialaid or contact the Financial Aid Office at 816-501-3600.

Assessment Program
Avila University is committed to evaluating the performance of the University as well as the academic achievement of the students. Assessment at Avila is a multidimensional, ongoing process of gathering, interpreting and sharing information about the learning and development of Avila’s students. This information is used to determine student achievement; to evaluate the effectiveness of the curriculum; to guide the revision of programs, courses and instruction; and to serve as a catalyst to aid students in self-evaluation and goal setting. Assessment at the undergraduate level addresses the learning outcomes for the Core Curriculum as well as the major. Graduate assessment focuses on the educational outcomes associated with each of the graduate programs. Students participate in assessment activities throughout their time at the university and after graduation as alumni. These activities include surveys, standardized examinations, in-class assessments, portfolios and final projects or theses.

Alternative Programs

Avila’s Weekend Classes
Avila’s weekend classes are designed for students who find the weekend a convenient and attractive time for learning and study. They are designed to service students who, because of job and family responsibilities, find weekend classes compatible with their lifestyles and goals.
Weekend Options

There are two options for weekend classes from which a student might choose:

- Weekend Intensive Classes: classes meet one, two or three weekends on Fridays from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- Saturday Classes: classes meet for two, four or six Saturdays. See the course schedule for meeting dates and times.

Weekend Policies

Weekend Intensive and Saturday Only Classes:

- The closing date for registration in weekend intensive courses or Saturday only courses is one week prior to the beginning of the course. Exceptions to this policy are at the discretion of the academic department.
- Students may withdraw from a weekend intensive course that meets one weekend any time prior to the beginning of the course.
- Students may withdraw from a two or three credit hour weekend intensive course or a Saturday only course, any time prior to the second weekend of the course.
- Part-time students who withdraw from a weekend intensive course before the beginning of the course receive full tuition reimbursement.
- Part-time students who withdraw after the first weekend (for weekend classes of 2 or 3 credit hours) but before the second weekend of the course will receive 50% reimbursement for the course tuition.
- There is no refund if the withdrawal takes place after the second meeting of the class.
- Full-time students who withdraw from a weekend intensive course before the beginning of the course receive tuition reimbursement as stated in the university catalog.
- Weekend intensive courses require readings prior to the beginning of the class, and STUDENTS MAY BE TESTED ON THAT MATERIAL DURING THE FIRST EVENING OF CLASS. Students should pick up a copy of the reading assignment in the Library or may obtain a copy on the Library web page.
- Courses may require the completion of assignments after the last weekend.
- Students are required to attend all sessions of a weekend intensive or Saturday only course. Missing any part of the class may result in either reduction of the final grade or assignment of “F” as the final course grade. Students who cannot attend all sessions should not enroll in a weekend intensive course or should withdraw from the class.
- The Credit/No Credit grade option is available to students for special session courses. For a one-credit course, this grading option must be contracted prior to the beginning of the course. If more than one credit, this grading option must be contracted prior to the second meeting of the course.

Academic Policies

Catalog Student Must Follow

The catalog in existence at the time a student first enrolls at Avila University is the one a student must follow in order to fulfill graduation requirements. With school or college approval, a student may choose to fulfill degree requirements under a subsequent catalog in existence during the student’s attendance at Avila University. Once a student changes catalogs, the student may not revert to the earlier catalog. Forms to change a catalog are available in the Registration and Student Records Office.

If a student does not attend Avila University for four consecutive semesters (not including summer sessions), the student must then fulfill the requirements of the catalog in existence at the date of re-enrollment. The dates of the catalog a student follows to fulfill degree requirements must be stated on the degree application.

Progress Toward Degree

A student accepted into a Graduate Program is expected to work consistently toward the degree and to register in the program until all requirements are met. Ordinarily, a student registers each semester for a minimum of three credit hours.

A student who does not register for graduate courses during two consecutive years will be required to reapply for admission to the Graduate Program; no fee is required for readmission.

To be granted a degree, all coursework must be completed within seven years from the time admitted to the Graduate Program.

Transfer of Credit

Avila University accepts transfer credits towards any Master’s degree as recommended in the transfer credit practices directory published by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers. Ordinarily, six (6) hours of “A” or “B” graduate coursework may be transferred into the MBA, nine (9) hours for General Psychology, Management and Organizational Development and fifteen (15) hours for the Counseling Psychology programs. Students transferring from another accredited institution’s doctoral psychology program or an international psychology Master’s program may be able to transfer more than the maximum hours noted above. The Education master’s program will transfer up to fifteen (15) hours of approved graduate coursework. Only courses accepted to meet degree requirements will be transcripted. All transcripted courses are included in the grade point average (GPA). Transcript grade will not include ‘+’ or ‘-’.
Academic Advising

Students must meet with their assigned academic advisor. Academic advising is required prior to each registration. Students are encouraged to contact their advisor at other times throughout the semester for information about university policies, services or professional opportunities.

Student Responsibility for Degree Completion

Students should discuss their specific degree requirements with their academic advisors throughout their academic career. While an academic advisor is to be of help to a student in planning and confirming the student’s progress toward graduation, ultimately it is the student’s responsibility to be familiar with the requirements for graduation, and to be aware of the number of hours completed towards graduation. Please check your individual program or school for deadlines to file for graduation.

Exceptions to Academic Policies

A student may request an exception to an academic policy or the degree requirements. An “Exception to Academic Regulations/Policies” form may be obtained from the Registration and Student Records Office. The request must be completed by the student with recommendations from the academic advisor and the dean of the school or college. The form is submitted to the Academic Affairs Office for the final decision.

Registration

Students should register prior to the beginning of classes. Late registration or class section changes may be permitted:

- During the first week of an 11- or 15-week course, including arranged classes;
- Up to one week prior to the beginning of a weekend intensive course;
- On the first day of class for 5-week, 6-week, 7-week, 8-week and summer classes, excepting ED intensive courses with pre-assignments.

A late registration fee will be charged.

Permission to Attend Another College

A student in a degree program must have the written approval of the academic advisor and the Registrar to take courses at another college. Students not obtaining written permission prior to studying off campus may risk not receiving credit at Avila University. Permission forms may be obtained from the academic advisor.

Repeated Course Work

Graduate students may repeat courses according to the policy of the program in which they are enrolled. The most recent grade earned is reflected in the cumulative grade point average. However, all course entries remain a part of the permanent record and credit is forfeited for all previous attempts.

- MBA Program: Students may repeat a course in which they earned a grade of “C,” “D,” or “F.” only one repeat of a required MBA course will be permitted.
- Education Program: Only one course may be repeated during the entire program.
- Psychology Program: For the MSCP degree, only two courses may be repeated during the entire program. For the MSGP degree, only one course may be repeated during the entire program.
- Organizational Development Program: Only one course may be repeated during the entire program.
- Management Program: Only one course may be repeated during the entire program.

Independent Study

Students may enroll for independent study with the permission of the instructor and the dean of the school or college. For students in Education and in Psychology, independent study is limited to three credit hours; however, for students in Psychology independent study may not apply to state licensure. See advisor for details.

Courses Offered for both Graduate and Undergraduate Credit

Students enrolled in Graduate Programs may take courses which are cross-listed and offered for both graduate and undergraduate credit. Students must take a minimum number of credits in courses exclusively reserved for graduate students as indicated below:

Class Attendance

Students are expected to attend all sessions of courses for which they are registered. Excessive absence may result in a grade of “F.”
Active Military Duty

Avila University supports students who are members of a branch of the United State armed services and makes efforts to accommodate them academically when possible if they are called to active duty. All requests under this policy must be sent to the Academic Affairs Office.

Academic Honesty

Avila University expects and requires academic honesty from all members of the university community. Cheating, plagiarism and falsification of documents will not be tolerated and appropriate sanctions will be imposed.

The university defines “cheating” to include the following practices: stealing an exam; collaborating on projects where not allowed by the instructor; copying during exams; exchanging information during exams; using unallowable information as designated by the instructor; and buying or stealing copies of exams or other projects.

The university defines “plagiarism” as taking ideas from another and passing them off as one’s own. Included would be the practice of incorporating portions from a printed or online book or article into a paper and not acknowledging the source; copying a whole paper or report directly from a book or article; securing a paper or report from another person or an online source and submitting it as one’s own work.

The instructor who discovers that a student has cheated or plagiarized has the right and duty to impose an appropriate sanction. The maximum sanction available to the instructor is to dismiss the student from class and administer an “F.” Lesser sanctions, appropriate for the offense, may be selected at the discretion of the instructor. An attempt must be made by each instructor to treat each offense in a consistent manner within the same course. Repeated offenses may result in dismissal from the university.

After informing the student of the sanction, the instructor may (if this is a first offense) notify Academic Affairs as to the nature of the offense and the sanction imposed. After the student’s second offense, the instructor must notify Academic Affairs.

For the third reported offense of cheating or plagiarizing, the student will be required to appear before the Academic Progress Committee. After hearing the case, this board has the right to impose a further sanction beyond that imposed by the instructor. The maximum sanction available to the University Academic Progress Committee is to dismiss the student from the university for repeated offenses. See Master of Science in Psychology Degree Programs for additional information about policies related to professional conduct for MSCP and MSGP students.

Program Changes and Withdrawals

Program changes and withdrawals are official when forms that are available in the Registration and Student Records Office have been obtained, completed and returned by the student to that office. Students who do not officially withdraw from a course by the date published in the class schedule will receive a final grade of “F.”

All schedule cancellations or complete withdrawals will result in charges of $25.00; all other changes in schedule will be charged $15.00 for each change. There is no fee for changes made as a result of classes cancelled by the university. The MBA Program meets on a trimester calendar (11-weeks). The fall trimester begins in early September and runs through the week prior to Thanksgiving. The winter trimester begins early January and runs through mid-March. The spring trimester begins late March and runs through early June. The summer session typically runs mid-June through mid-August. The last date to change to audit or drop a trimester-long MBA class will be prior to the seventh class meeting.

The fee for each change is $15. There is no fee for changes made as a result of classes cancelled by the university.

will be withdrawn from the course by the instructor. A final grade of “AU” is recorded on the transcript.

I = Incomplete. Incomplete grades are only issued at the instructor’s discretion due to extenuating circumstances. All assigned incomplete grades must have a Contract for an Incomplete Grade Form completed and submitted by the instructor to the Registration and Student Records Office within one week of grade entry through MyAU. The student is charged $5.00 for each Incomplete Grade assigned. Coursework required for a grade must be completed within six weeks after the last day of the course. If not completed by the due date stipulated on the Incomplete grade form, the grade of Incomplete will be changed to an ‘F’ in the Registration and Student Records Office. If the student and instructor wish to extend the original due date for the work to be completed, that extension must be submitted in writing by the instructor to the Registration and Student Records Office. If the timeframe will extend beyond six weeks after the last day of the course (not counting summer term), the extension must be approved by the School/College Dean and the Academic Affairs Office. See MBA program for policy on incomplete (I) grade in a graduate directed study or research course.

Grade Point Average (GPA)
The basis for determining the academic standing is the point-hour ratio. The Grade Point Average (GPA) is obtained by dividing the total number of semester hours, including transfer credits, but excluding grading assessments of W, AU and I. Transcript letter grades will not be assigned ‘+’ or ‘-’. All grades for courses retaken will be displayed on the transcript, but only the most recent grade will be averaged into the GPA.

For graduate students, only transferred courses that meet requirements will be transcripted and averaged into the grade point average.

Probation and Dismissal
The following criteria apply for all graduate students:
Graduate students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0. A student will be placed on probation if the cumulative GPA falls below a 3.0 or if the student earns a grade of “D” or “F.” If the student’s GPA falls below a 3.0, the student must raise the GPA within 9 credit hours, or the student will be subject to dismissal from the program. The student can only repeat a given course one time. The number of “C” grades allowed per student varies by graduate program, but can never exceed 20% of the total program hours.

Grade Reports
Final student grades are available on-line. Paper grade reports are only mailed by specific request.

Transcripts
Students who have satisfied all financial obligations to the University are entitled to a transcript of their academic record.

Due to the confidential nature of a student’s record, transcripts are issued only on written authorization of the student concerned. Telephone requests will not be accepted. Written requests should be directed to the Registration and Student Records Office.

OFFICIAL transcripts are forwarded directly by mail to other institutions. UNOFFICIAL transcripts are issued to the student for personal use. The fee for an official transcript is $7, payable in advance. Unofficial transcripts are also available on-line via a student’s MyAU account.

Current students may also order official transcripts online with a credit card via their MyAU account. This service is provided by the National Student Clearinghouse, which charges a processing fee in addition to the $7.00 transcript fee.

Release of Student Information - FERPA
Avila University is in compliance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974. This Act, also known as the Buckley Amendment, helps protect the privacy of student records. The Act provides for the right to inspect and review educational records, to seek to amend those records, and to limit disclosure or information from the records.

Official student records are maintained in the Registration and Student Records Office. Students and parents of dependent students may request to review official educational records under the following procedure.

- The students must provide a written request to review the record. Parents of dependent students must supply evidence of the income-tax dependency of the student if the student does not sign a release. If the parent provides documentation, the academic advisor and/or instructor will be notified.
- An appointment to review the record will be set with the Registrar/Director of the Registration and Student Records Office or with the Vice Provost.
- If the student believes that inaccurate or misleading information is contained in the educational record, or that the information is in violation of the student’s rights of privacy, the student may submit a written request to the administrator of the office responsible for that record. The written request submitted should include the part of the record that is believed to need change and why it is believed the information is inaccurate, misleading, or in violation. The university will investigate the request and notify the student of the decision. If the record is not amended as requested, the student has the right to request a hearing.

Institutions may disclose information on a student without violating FERPA if they have designated the information as “directory information.” At Avila University, this includes:

- Verification of enrollment status including full-time, part-time, graduate, undergraduate, and classification.
- Student name, major and minor fields of study, academic honors, and degrees.
- Student address and telephone numbers (only in connection with campus events and to persons with legitimate reason).
- Student email address (only available to authorized users of the Avila University email system).
- Dates of attendance.
- Participation in campus activities and sports.
- Weight and height of members of athletic teams.
- Most recent education agency or institution attended and hometown.
- Student photograph.

Students have the right to “opt out” of providing directory information. Requests to limit the release of directory information must be provided in writing to the Registration and Student Records Office by the end of the second week of the semester.

Institutions may disclose non-directory information without violating FERPA under the following conditions:

- with the student’s written request;
- to school officials with “legitimate educational interests;”
- to parents of dependent students;
- to a person in response to a lawfully issued subpoena or court order.

For questions regarding FERPA, please contact the Registrar or the Academic Affairs Office. Students have the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20202-4605

Procedure for Grade Appeal

Students have recourse to an appeals procedure for the review of student course grades received at Avila University. Guidelines and request forms are available in the Office of Academic Affairs. The deadline for appealing a grade is fourteen (14) Avila University business days after grades are due for the course being appealed.

Application for Degree

All students must submit an application for degree to the Registration and Student Records Office during the semester prior to their final semester at the university, stating the expected date of degree completion.

If students do not complete the degree requirements by the expected date of completion, they must submit a new degree application in the Registration and Student Records Office.

After the degree application is received with the Registration and Student Records Office, a survey of all academic work is reviewed by the Registrar to verify degree requirements still needed to be satisfied. Written notification of those requirements will be sent from the Registrar to the student.

Please check the Avila website for graduation application due dates:
http://www.avila.edu/graduation

Second Degree

Requirements for earning two degrees to be awarded simultaneously:

- Completion of a minimum of twenty-four (24) semester hours at Avila University in addition to the hours required for the first Master degree.

Requirements for earning a second degree after having been awarded a Master degree:

- Completion of a minimum of twenty-four (24) additional semester hours at Avila University after the awarding of the first Master degree.

Participation in Commencement

Graduate students in Education, traditional Psychology, and MBA with nine (9) hours or less of coursework to complete in the summer term may participate in the May graduation ceremony. Advantage Graduate Students with six (6) hours or less of coursework to complete in the summer term may participate in the May graduation ceremony. Requests for exceptions to this policy must be submitted in writing to the Academic Affairs Office. Students may only participate in one graduation ceremony for a given degree.
Course Numbering System

500-599 Foundational graduate courses and Education graduate certification courses
600-699 Graduate courses

The number in parentheses after the course title indicates the credit in semester hours.

The letters following the course description indicate the semester in which the course is given. Fall semester course offerings are indicated by FA; spring semester, SP; summer session, SU. Where frequency of course offering is not indicated, the course is given as required.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS/ COURSES

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Concentrations:
- Accounting
- Finance
- Management
- Health Care Administration
- International Business
- Management Information Systems
- Marketing

The MBA program provides preparation for adults to assume administrative positions in a broad range of business and other types of institutions within our society. A student with a bachelor’s degree in any academic discipline may enroll in Avila’s MBA program. However, students who have not completed a bachelor’s degree in business will be required to take certain (500-Level) prerequisite courses.

MBA Schedule

The Avila MBA is an evening program offered in an 11-week trimester scheduling format. The fall trimester meets from early September through mid-November. The winter trimester meets from early January through mid-March. The spring trimester meets from late March through early June. The summer session typically runs from mid-June through mid-August.

Regular Admission

Admission requirements for the MBA program are a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution and at least 1000 points based on the formula: 200 X the GPA on the last 60/90 semester/quarter hours (4.0 system) plus the GMAT score. In addition, all MBA applicants must score a minimum of 420 points on the GMAT. All official transcript(s) of all college-level work and official GMAT score report must be submitted.

Provisional Admission

Students with a 3.0 grade point average from the bachelor’s degree can be admitted provisionally, but they are then required to take the GMAT in their first trimester and the minimum score (420) is required to be considered as admitted. If the minimum score is not achieved during the first trimester, a student may continue with provisional admittance but must achieve the GMAT score of 420 in the second trimester of study. The provisionally admitted student must maintain a 3.0 GPA in the Avila MBA courses. Students may not continue beyond two trimesters on provisional admit status. All official transcript(s) of all college-level work and official GMAT score report must be submitted.

Admission Appeal

Should a student wish to appeal the admission decision he/she must submit a written request to the Director of Admission of the appropriate admitting office. Grounds for the appeal must be contained in the appeal request. Standard grounds for an appeal include:

a. The decision was based on inaccurate information;
b. New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application

Appeals on admission decisions will be considered for up to one semester after the term the student was denied. After one semester, the student must re-apply for admission and complete the required admission process. Send the signed appeal letter and supporting material to:

Avila University
Attn: Director of MBA Admission
11901 Wornall Road
Kansas City, MO 64145

The University official/committee reviewing the appeal will communicate the final decision to the student.

International Student Requirements
All international student applicants are required to score a minimum of 550 on the TOEFL. There will be no exceptions to the minimum TOEFL score requirement.

Candidacy Status
Upon having satisfied all admission criteria identified above, having demonstrated a satisfactory level of written and oral communication skills, spreadsheet and word processing computer application skills, and having completed nine (9) hours of graduate work with a grade point average of 3.0 or better, the student must apply for candidacy status. Only students approved for candidacy status will be permitted to continue in the degree program.

Grades
The MBA student can only repeat a given course one time. Only two “C” grades are allowed during the student’s entire program of study.

Requirements for Graduation
All study programs shall require at least 24 hours of foundation courses associated with an education for business. This requirement may be met with a combination of undergraduate and graduate work. Additionally, the MBA student must complete at least 24 hours of additional graduate work. Each program must involve a minimum of 30 total graduate hours of which 24 hours are open exclusively to graduate students. A maximum of six (6) graduate hours may be transferred from another accredited institution toward the minimum 30-hour requirement.

All concentrations, except accounting, require the completion of 9 hours of work in an area of concentration beyond the foundation level. The accounting concentration requires 12 hours. Principal graduate courses otherwise required may be counted in this 9-hour requirement when relevant to the concentration selected. All students must file an application for degree in accordance with guidelines set forth by the University. A 3.0 grade average is required in graduate courses. All requirements for the degree program must be completed within a seven-year period.

Incomplete Grade in Directed Study or Research
Any incomplete (I) grade in a graduate Directed Study or Research course not completed for evaluation by the first day of the second session or semester following the one in which the student initially enrolled will be changed to “F.”

In order to extend the time for completing the work, the student must again enroll in the course and pay the tuition.

The Curriculum
The specific courses required of a particular student in completing the program depends on his or her prior educational background and the specific concentration selected. Courses may be classified as prerequisite, foundation and principal courses.

MBA Outcomes:
• Demonstrate the ability to synthesize and integrate all of the functional areas of business and apply this knowledge to leadership positions in the workplace.
• Demonstrate the ability to communicate professionally in an organizational setting via written, oral and technological means.
• Formulate and solve problems through systematic analysis.
• Understand the effects of globalization on business operations.

The MBA outcomes are assessed as part of the MBA capstone course, Organizational Policy and Strategy (BU 699). The Major Field Test for the MBA, a comprehensive national assessment instrument from ETS (Educational Testing Service), will be utilized for this purpose.

For a complete listing of graduate business courses that meet MBA outcomes and a comprehensive assessment plan, please contact the School of Business.

Graduate Level Education Initial Certification Program

Note: The Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education is completing a re-design of teacher education programs. As a result, requirements are subject to change. State assessment exams will be changing in the future.

This program is designed for the adult who has completed a baccalaureate degree and wishes to pursue teaching certification. The education courses required for the 9-12 (high school) teaching certificate are offered in an intensive study format at a graduate level. Courses for elementary, special education and middle school education are also offered at a graduate level; however, some may not be offered in an evening, intensive study format. Additional undergraduate courses will be required to complete the state requirements for certification in elementary and special education.

The School of Education at Avila University is committed to educating innovative, adaptable, and involved professionals who will provide service to a diverse and ever-changing population. Through value-based learning and authentic experiences, our graduates will be qualified, ethical, and responsible contributors to the greater society.

Educational Outcomes
The School of Education has ten Conceptual Framework goals which all initial certification candidates must achieve. These goals/outcomes are aligned with the Missouri Teacher Standards and Quality Indicators. The goals/outcomes are designed to produce excellent beginning teachers who meet the University and School missions. A full text copy of the School of Education Conceptual Framework including goals/outcomes assessment information is available on the School of Education website.

Conceptual Framework Goals:
Goal 1: Professional Communication
Candidates will demonstrate strong competencies in the communicative arts including exemplary use of the oral, written, nonverbal, technological communication and group processing skills with professors, students, colleagues, administrators, parents and others in the educational arena.

Goal 2: Critical Reflection and Decision Making
Candidates will exhibit critical reflection on practice and display exemplary decision making skills including higher level
Candidates will use theoretical knowledge and research about learning and human behavior to create motivating learning experiences, manage the classroom and respond appropriately to classroom events.

Goal 8: Field Experiences and Clinical Practice
Candidates will fully grasp the realities of classrooms by applying principles, theories, and methods in diverse field-based and clinical experiences.

Goal 9: Leadership and Service
Candidates will demonstrate a commitment to lead and serve in an ethical manner through interactions at the university and in school-based communities.

Goal 10: Foundation for Continued Professional Development
Candidates will establish a foundation for continued professional growth and development.

Assessment
All initial certification candidates are evaluated through the School of Education goals tied to the Missouri Teacher Standards and Quality Indicators. These standards and indicators are assessed through a variety of methods, including admittance to the School of Education requirements, written and performance assessments as indicated on syllabi, key assessments from courses, Final Clinical Experience/Internship requirements, successful completion of the Teacher Work Sample, and the Praxis II specialty examination. Grids showing the relationship between the Conceptual Framework Goals and Missouri Teacher Standards and Quality Indicators are available in the School of Education office.

  f. Evidence of good character, positive attitude, and dedication to the ethics of the teaching profession, based on written evaluation of practicum supervisor, education faculty member(s) and background check.
  g. Evidence of positive evaluations of Professional Dispositions. Candidates are evaluated on the Professional Dispositions form during ED 585 Practicum, ED 315 General Methods, and in either ED 570 Assessment and Remediation of Reading Problems (elementary and special education candidates) or in ED 555 Special Methods (middle school and secondary candidates) and in 595 Final Clinical Experience. In addition, the Professional Dispositions form is available to all faculty and staff throughout the candidate’s time at Avila. If a candidate receives two or more Professional Dispositions Forms which indicate concerns in this area, a conference with the Dean of the School of Education and/or the Director of Graduate Education will be initiated. Concerns will be shared and the candidate will be placed on a plan for remediation which will be monitored in subsequent courses. Continued concerns in this area may be cause for delay, denial to, or removal from the teacher education program. For more information on Professional Dispositions, consult the School of Education Teacher Candidate Handbook.
  h. The School of Education reserves the right to refuse admission to the teacher education program to any person who has been convicted as a felon or has otherwise committed offenses inappropriate for a teacher.

- Completion of all education coursework with a grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and no grade below “C.” Only one course may be repeated one time during the program.

- Completion of all content courses required for certification and a 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale and no grade below “C.”

- Successful completion of the Final Clinical Experience/Internship.

A teacher candidate may be removed from the Final Clinical Experience school site based on the recommendation of the school district or any of its agents, Avila University supervisors, or the Director of Clinical and Field-Based Experiences. If a teacher candidate is removed from the Final Clinical Experience, the teacher candidate will be dismissed from the program and will not be eligible for re-entry into the program. For candidates who are currently employed as full-time paraprofessionals in a Missouri school, certain exemptions to the Final Clinical Experience/Internship may apply. See the Policy on Teacher Assistants/Paraprofessionals in the School of Education Office.

- Successful completion of the Teacher Work Sample (TWS), an important part of the Final Clinical Experience. The TWS requires that the teacher candidate plan and teach a unit of study during Final Clinical Experience. Before teaching the unit, the teacher candidates will describe contextual factors, identify learning goals based on state and district standards, create an assessment plan designed to measure K-12 student performance (pre-assessment), during (formative assessment) and after (post-assessment) instruction, design instruction based on learning goals, and make instructional decisions. After teaching the unit, the teacher candidate will analyze K-12 student learning and then reflect upon and evaluate his or her teaching as related to K-12 student learning in order to improve teaching practice. The TWS is reviewed as a final product by education faculty following completion of the Final Clinical Experience. The TWS assesses School of Education Conceptual Framework Goals and Missouri Teacher Standards and Quality Indicators.

- Successful completion of the Praxis II Specialty Exam is required before a candidate can complete the Certification program. The Principles of Learning and Teaching exam is required for Kansas certification, but is not a program completion requirement.

ADVANCED CERTIFICATION PROGRAM ESOL

The Advanced Certification program is for certified K-12 teachers who wish to add an ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) endorsement to an existing teaching certificate. Certification to teach English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) is an add-on endorsement.

Applicants must already have a teaching certificate in another area of specialization to complete this program.

Educational Outcomes ESOL

The courses in the ESOL Advanced Certification program provide students with knowledge of advanced principles of learning and teaching a second language as well as practical applications of those principles in classroom teaching situations. Students who complete the ESOL Advanced Certification program will also meet the following outcomes:

- Understand the nature of language and language learning.
- Understand the structure and use of English in different contexts.
- Understand culture and the role it plays in learning a second language.
- Consider a range of theories, approaches, methods, and techniques for learning and teaching a second language.
- Analyze and critique past practices and current trends in second language learning, teaching, and evaluation.
- Apply the knowledge they have gained by teaching in a supervised setting.
- Work with teachers and students in a multicultural environment.
- Further develop personal skills in using the English language.
- Develop a personal philosophy of second-language learning and teaching.
- Understand the evolving nature of second-language learning and teaching and have strategies for dealing effectively with this change.

Outcomes Assessment

Outcomes for the Advanced Certification program are assessed through a combination of written examinations and assignments and performance evaluations and assignments. Individual course syllabi show in detail the way in which each course addresses and evaluates the graduate and individual program outcomes. A grid showing the assessment of outcomes in each graduate course is located in the Education Office.

Admission Requirements for the Advanced Certification Program

The applicant seeking admission to the program must:

- Attend an information session/personal interview;
- Have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution;
- Complete all parts of the written application, including writing sample;
- Submit one letter of recommendation;
- Submit all official transcript(s) of all college-level work completed;
- Submit verification of teaching certificate;
- Have a grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale;
- Meet designated prerequisites for the program:
  - Course in Psychology of the Exceptional Child and Reading in the Content Areas
  - ESOL: Satisfactory completion of one year of foreign language study or an equivalent experience learning a language within another culture. (recommended)
  - Students whose primary language is not English are required to submit official score reports of the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) exam. The examination results should not be more than two years old. The minimum TOEFL score required is 580 on the written test, 237 on the computer-based test, or 92 on the internet-based test. The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam scores may be submitted in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum IELTS exam score required for admission is an overall score of 7.5 with no individual band score below 6.0.

Required Courses
ESOL
The ESOL Advanced Certification requires a minimum of 21 hours of coursework. Additional courses may be necessary if a candidate does not meet the professional prerequisites. To maintain enrollment, a student must maintain a 3.0 grade point average in coursework, with no grade lower than a “C”. Only one grade of “C” is accepted in the certification program.

Required Courses: ED 561, 650, 651, 652, 654, 656, 695.

Master of Arts in Education
The Master of Arts in Education is a 33 credit-hour program with areas of concentration in Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL) and Teaching and Learning.

Educational Outcomes
The educational outcomes are designed to prepare practicing professionals with the skills necessary to model professional practice, integrate educational theory with practice, assume leadership roles, and demonstrate knowledge of current educational research and practice. Graduate education outcomes assess skills in receptive and expressive communication, thinking strategies and skills, personal and social development, and depth and breadth of knowledge. Master’s degree-seeking students must meet the outcomes as identified for the particular area of concentration. Additionally, all course requirements are tied to the Missouri Standards for Practicing Teachers and the InTASC Core Teaching Standards. Syllabi indicate how these outcomes and standards are assessed through individual course requirements.

Teaching and Learning Concentration Outcomes
• Demonstrate communication skills, including the ability to: model effective teaching skills through integration of theory, professional practice, and applied research; communicate in specific, concrete, general, and abstract terms as appropriate; express written ideas in a clear, well organized manner; express oneself orally using correct verbal skills including grammar, intonation, and fluency; and communicate within a culturally diverse milieu.
• Demonstrate cognitive skills, including the ability to: be a reflective teacher by analyzing individual teaching behaviors and integrating practical and theoretical concepts in an educational setting; utilize creative and critical thinking skills to become an effective instructional leader; evaluate and critique quantitative and qualitative research; plan and conduct classroom investigations and implement a plan of change when appropriate; and interpret group and individual standardized and informal assessments.
• Demonstrate personal and social skills, including the ability to: demonstrate commitment to lifelong learning; assume leadership responsibilities with colleagues and in their profession; cultivate the ongoing exploration and acceptance of differing educational perspectives; and demonstrate acceptance of individual differences.
• Demonstrate knowledge in each of the following areas: depth and breadth of educational literature; the major historical developments and philosophical principles of education in the United States; the theoretical concepts describing human learning and motivations and their application to lesson design, instruction, and evaluation and assessment; curriculum development, both the philosophical basis and current research in design and implementation of curricular plans; and measurement of groups and individual learning.

Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL) Concentration Outcomes
• Understand the nature of language and language learning.
• Understand the structure and use of English in different contexts.
• Understand culture and the role it plays in learning a second language.
• Consider a range of theories, approaches, methods and techniques for learning and teaching a second language.
• Analyze and critique past practices and current trends in second language learning, teaching, and evaluation.
• Apply the knowledge they have gained by teaching in a supervised setting.
• Work with teachers and students in a multicultural environment.
• Further develop personal skills in using the English language.
• Develop a personal philosophy of second language learning and teaching.
• Understand the evolving nature of second-language learning and teaching and have strategies for dealing effectively with this change.

Assessment
Outcomes for the Master of Arts in Education are assessed through written examinations and assignments and performance evaluations and assignments. Individual course syllabi show in detail the way in which the course addresses and evaluates the graduate outcomes. A grid showing the assessment of outcomes in each graduate concentration is located in the Education Office. A concentration in TESL requires capstone courses in which the outcomes are assessed in a clinical setting.

Admission Requirements
The applicant seeking admission to this program must:
• Attend an information session/personal interview;
• Have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution;
• Complete all parts of the written application, including writing sample;
• Submit one letter of recommendation;

grounds for an appeal include:

a. The decision was based on inaccurate information;

b. New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application

Appeals on admission decisions will be considered for up to one semester after the term the student was denied. After one semester, the student must re-apply for admission and complete the required admission process.

Admission Appeal

Should a student wish to appeal the admission decision he/she must submit a written request to the Director of Admission of the appropriate admitting office. Grounds for the appeal must be contained in the appeal request. Standard grounds for an appeal include:

a. The decision was based on inaccurate information;

b. New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application

Requirements for Master’s Degree Program

Requirements: Master of Arts in Education requires a minimum of 33 hours of coursework. The student must complete one of the areas of concentration. A maximum of 15 hours of transfer credit is allowed. To maintain enrollment the student must carry a 3.0 average in coursework, with no grade lower than a “C.” Only one grade of “C” is accepted toward the 33 hour program. Only one course may be repeated one time during the entire program.

Required Courses

Master of Arts in Education: Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL) Concentration

ED 561, 650, 651, 652, 654, 656, 657, 696 and 6-9 hours of electives. Note: Students seeking Advanced Certificate must successfully complete ED 695.

Master of Arts in Education: Teaching and Learning Concentration

ED 612, 615, 617, 630, 684, ED 600 level electives (3 hours total) and 15 hours from the TESL concentration.

Academic Policy

All students who have been officially admitted to the Avila University Master’s program must maintain a 3.0 grade point average in all graduate coursework with no grade below a “C.” Only one grade of “C” is accepted toward the 33-hour program. Only one course may be repeated one time in the entire program. Students who are unable to maintain these academic standards will be dismissed from the program.

GRADUATE COURSES IN EDUCATION

ED 514. Methods and Educational Technology. (2)
The focus of this course is teaching candidates to use technology for differentiating instruction to meet the needs of every student in every lesson. The course provides critical tools to meet the demands of teachers and learners. Candidates will explore how to differentiate instruction using technologies such as internet, wikis, blogs, podcasts, photo sharing, virtual offices, simulation and game-based learning and other emerging technologies. This course explores learning-theory research and its applications for technology-enriched, standards-based units of study. Students will study theories of constructivism, multiple intelligences, and other research related to how people learn. Participants will learn how technology applications can be used to create learning environments that strengthen problem-solving skills, and encourage communication, collaboration, and reflection. Must be taken concurrently with ED 515. FA. SP.

ED 515. General Methods. (3)
Theories, principles and methods of pedagogy; developing and writing objectives in three instructional domains; steps in lesson planning; selection and application of appropriate procedures, methods, and techniques; unit goals and assessment for a Teacher Work Sample, exploration of learning styles, trends, and issues. Course serves as the mid-level field-based placement in the program. Course requires a placement in a classroom of an area school. Course requires flexibility to accomplish the field-based placement. Transportation is required. General Methods can only be taken at Avila University. Credit for taking this course at another institution will not be accepted. Must be taken concurrently with ED 514. Fee required. FA, SP.

ED 519. Behavior Management: Introduction to Classroom Discipline. (3)
Theories, techniques, and current research concerning behavior management/discipline in classrooms. The emphasis is on a proactive integrated method of discipline. By the end of the course, each candidate will have produced his/her own discipline plan. FA, SP.

ED 521. Developmental Psychology. (3)
A survey of the main patterns of growth and development of the person from birth through adolescence; emphasis on the social, cognitive, emotional, and physical development of the person. FA.

ED 535. Psychology of the Exceptional Child. (3)
Designed to provide an introduction to the various areas of exceptionality (gifted, mentally handicapped, learning disabled, emotionally disturbed, etc.) Social, educational, and family characteristics of exceptional children are explored. Samples of the unique teaching methods, materials and techniques of instruction are studied. In addition, laws and regulations covering exceptional students are presented. Clinical component required. FA.

ED 537. General Methods II. (3)
Different instructional models based on concept formation, inquiry, and diversity. Theories and principles of pedagogy are discussed in general and applied specially to the teaching of social studies in the elementary and middle school classroom, with an emphasis on economics. Management theory is also examined. Field-based component required. Prerequisite or corequisite: ED 514 and ED 515. FA.

ED 540. Elementary School Science Methods. (2)
Methods for planning units of study in science. Experiments, cooperative group work and alternative ways of presenting material in the area of science. Prerequisite or corequisite: ED 514 and ED 515. SP.

ED 541. Foundations of Literacy. (3)
This course will examine oral and written language development and how this is facilitated and integrated into a balanced literacy program. Theories and objectives for teaching language arts in the elementary and middle school classroom will be studied. Strategies for teaching written languages will be explored. Field-based component required. Prerequisites or corequisites: ED 514, ED 515 and ED 541. FA.

ED 545. Tests and Measurements. (3)
A study of the role of evaluation in the instructional process, preparation of outcomes objectives, and basic statistical concepts and common terminology related to educational measurement. Practice in developing classroom tests, assessment in the Teacher Work Sample, and the study of performance-based assessment are provided as well as information regarding commonly used formal tests in school districts. SP.

ED 553. Analysis and Characteristics: Cross Categorical. (4)
Exploration of the theories and characteristics of behavior disorders, learning disabilities, mental handicaps, and physical orthopedic and health disorders. Theories and practices of cross-categorical placements will be studied. Legal implications, identification procedures, and diagnosis procedures will be discussed. Field-based component required. Prerequisites: ED 535. Prerequisite or corequisite ED 514, ED 515 and ED 541. FA, odd years.

ED 554. Middle School Teacher Skills/Knowledge Attitudes. (3)
The knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary to understand the basic organizational structure of the middle school and the necessary competencies to teach in an organization that stresses teamwork and collaboration. The course will provide simulated interdisciplinary team experiences, the opportunities to examine flexible grouping arrangements, block scheduling, effective school components, and incorporating advising into the total school program. Field-based component required. SP.

ED 555. Special Methods of Teaching Content Subjects. (2)
Exploration of methods and procedures special to the content areas of middle and secondary teaching including unit preparation and lesson design for the Teacher Work Sample. Art certification candidates (K-12) take the elementary and secondary Special Methods classes. Vocal music certification candidates (K-12) take the elementary and secondary Special Methods classes. This class typically meets off-campus. Transportation required. Field-based component required. Prerequisite, Fee required. Prerequisite: ED 535. SP, odd years.

ED 558. Methods and Curriculum: Cross Categorical. (4)
Selection of appropriate teaching methods and materials applicable for teaching children in cross-categorical settings will be the focus of study. Field-based component required. Prerequisite: ED 553. SP, even years.

ED 561. Language Acquisition & Development. (3)
Exploration of speech and language problems associated with exceptional children and second language learners; normal speech and language development, indications for referral, and educational techniques. Field-based component required. Prerequisite or corequisite ED 543. FA.

ED 563. Educational Assessment. (3)
An analysis and study of selected topics pertinent to the assessment of educational functioning. Emphasis will be on diagnostic assessment, both formal and informal, to aid in the diagnosis and treatment of learning problems occurring in special education settings, or with children needing individualized programming in regular classrooms. Candidates will administer and interpret several of the currently used assessment instruments. Field-based component required. Fee required. Prerequisite: ED 535. SP, odd years.

ED 564. Parent Conferencing for Special Education. (1)
Exploration of methods in the conferencing situation with an emphasis on working with parents in the development of the I.E.P. Interpreting progress, discussions of various assessments including state requirements. Emphasis on developing relationships with parents of exceptional children. SP, odd years.

ED 565. Parent Conferencing for Elementary Education. (1)
Exploration of methods in the conferencing situation; emphasis on developing a
ED 566. Parent Conferencing for Middle School and Secondary Teachers. (1)
Exploration of methods for communicating with parents of the middle and high school student. Involvement of the family in the school community is stressed. FA, odd years.

ED 567. Transition/Career Education. (2)
Methods for helping the exceptional child successfully make the transition from school to competitive employment with emphasis on appropriate transition goals and objectives. Legal and ethical considerations are explored. Prerequisite: ED 535. FA, even years.

ED 568. Health and Safety Issues in Schools. (1)
Presents an overview of health and safety issues specifically related to school settings. Candidates will experience learning activities and skill practices to increase knowledge and skills in dealing with emergency and first aid situations. Candidates will earn CPR and first aid certification as well as bloodborne pathogen training. Health issues such as eating disorders, nutrition, substance abuse, and depression will be covered, and the teacher’s role in dealing with these situations will be discussed. NOTE: Should be taken the semester before

ED 570. Assessment & Remediation of Reading Problems. (3)
This course explores the diagnostic and reflective teaching of reading. Emphasis is on assessment, instruction, and reflection that appropriately supports children at various stages of reading development. Must be taken concurrently with ED 586. Prerequisite: ED 541. FA, SP.

ED 575. Reading in the Content Areas. (3)
Candidates will learn strategies for teaching reading, writing, speaking, and listening in the content areas. Methods of teaching effective comprehensive vocabulary and study skills will be presented. Students will practice techniques for adapting materials and dealing with challenged readers. Field-based component required. SP.

ED 577. Adolescent Literature. (2)
Study of adolescent literature, how to analyze and teach it, ways to incorporate literature in middle school and secondary classrooms. Primarily for middle school and secondary education teacher candidates. FA, even years.

ED 580. Special Topics: Issues in Education. (1-3)
This course will offer a series of intensive classes on topics dealing with current issues. This class will utilize outside experts as instructors along with regular faculty. It will provide an opportunity for students to choose topics of particular interest and use for them. FA, SP, SU.

ED 580. Special Topics: Implementing Vocational Business Programs. (3)
This course is designed to prepare business education and vocational teacher candidates for all aspects of vocational programs. This includes administration, specific issues, funding, procedures, and the involvement of state and federal roles in vocational business. FA.

ED 584. Introduction to Educational Technology. (2)
Of central focus in this course is the use of technology as a catalyst for changing teaching and learning in ways that better support the acquisition of higher-order thinking skills by all students. Thus, the course will include an introduction to the National Educational Technology Standards and the historical and current trends in educational technology addressing specifically national standards and how they impact learning/schools; profiles of NETS (National Education Teaching Standards) for teachers and students; integration of the standards into the classroom; analysis, evaluation, and creation of media and its effect on schools, learning, and society. Must be taken concurrently with ED 585. FA, SP.

ED 585. Practicum. (3)
The teacher candidate will assist in activities with mentor teachers. This course serves as an early screening process for teacher candidates. The course requires observation/participation, which must be met during the regular school day. Candidates will meet on campus, be introduced to the Teacher Work Sample, and communicate with the instructor throughout the semester. Evaluation will be based on professional performance, reflective writing, log, and mentor evaluations. NOTE: Practicum is a critical course for teacher candidates. Favorable recommendation of performance in all activities for ED 585 Practicum, including mentor, site supervisor, and instructor evaluations are required for a candidate to continue in the Initial Certification Program. This class should be taken during the first semester of coursework. Candidates who do not take Practicum during their first semester should expect Final Clinical Experience/Internship to be delayed. Developmental recommendations may be made as a result of this course. If necessary, candidates will be allowed to retake Practicum one time after waiting at least one subsequent semester in which the course is offered. Practicum can only be taken at Avila University. Credit for taking this course at another institution will not be accepted. Transportation required. Fee required. Part of the fee is non-refundable due to security background check requirement. Must be taken concurrently with ED 584. Field-based component required. FA, SP.
ED 590. Directed Study. (1-3)
Opportunity for the student to study a topic of interest in depth. Consent of the instructor and advisor is required. FA, SP, SU.

ED 593. Teacher Productivity and Technology. (1)
The focus of this course will be on experiential learning within technology. The course will identify ways teacher candidates and K-12 students use technology to gather, refine, and share information pertaining to classroom learning and learning community development. Prerequisites: Admittance to the School of Education, major and minor requirements completed. Co-requisites: ED 594 Final Clinical Experience Capstone Seminar and ED 595 Final Clinical Experience. FA, SP.

ED 594. Final Clinical Experience Seminar. (1)
Seminar is a companion course to Teacher Productivity and Technology and the Final Clinical Experience. Seminar is a communication-intensive course which requires professional writing in communications and reflections (with Avila University supervisor and instructor) and job search (resume, cover letters, and thank you letters) to potential employers and an extensive Teacher Work Sample containing analysis of context, collection, organization, interpretation and analysis of student assessment data, curriculum design, discussion of and rationale for instructional decisions and reflection on instructional practice, self-improvement and continued professional growth. Fee required. Must be taken concurrently with ED 593 and ED 595. FA, SP.

ED 595. Final Clinical Experience. (7)
Pre-professional experience in a classroom setting; supervision and guidance shared between the cooperating teacher and the University supervisory staff. A teacher candidate may be removed from the Final Clinical Experience school site based on the recommendations of the school district or any of its agents, Avila University supervisors, or the Director of Clinical and Field-Based Experiences. If a candidate is removed from Final Clinical Experience, the candidate will not be eligible for re-entry into the program nor for recommendation for certification by Avila University. Fee required. Must be taken concurrently with ED 593 and ED 594. Prerequisites: admittance to the School of Education; all Education coursework must be completed. FA, SP.

ED 596. Internship. (7)
Professional experience in teaching while in a full-time paid position as a teacher in the appropriate certification area. Candidates must complete a contract with the sponsoring school. Avila University will provide a qualified supervisor. Fee required. Must be taken concurrently with ED 593 and ED 594. Prerequisites: admittance to the School of Education; all Education coursework must be completed. Credit/No Credit only. FA, SP.

ED 597. Beginning Internship. (4)
Registration in this course of study requires full-time employment as a teacher in the appropriate certification area. This course will provide the initial professional support from University supervisors to focus on development of essential beginning teacher skills. This is the first half of the 8-hour requirement for the clinical internship experience. Fee required. FA.

ED 598. Advanced Internship. (3)
Registration in this course of study requires full-time employment as a teacher in the appropriate certification area. This course will provide follow-up instructional support and assessment of development of professional teaching skills. Prerequisites: successful completion of ED 597; admittance to the School of Education; all Education coursework must be completed. Fee required. Must be taken concurrently with ED 593 and ED 594. FA, SP.

ED 612. Measurement and Assessment. (3)
This course is designed to integrate planning, instruction, and measurement of the learning process. Thinking will be directed toward the assessment of student outcomes. Topics include traditional classroom assessment, performance-based assessment, non-traditional methods of assessment, curriculum measurement, grading, reporting, state assessments and critical reading of professional literature including research design. FA.

ED 615. Theories of Learning. (3)
The purpose of this course is to survey the major theoretical concepts underlying how the human organism learns and what propels him/her to action. Implications for instruction, lesson planning, and assessment will be explored. SP.

ED 617. Theories of Behavior. (3)
This course will focus on the application of specific ecological, behavioral, psychoeducational, and developmental theories to real classroom management and behavior problems. Students should have a foundation in general classroom management models. FA.

ED 630. Advanced Curriculum and Instruction. (3)
The student will explore the basic concepts, terminology, philosophy, and current research in curriculum planning; apply these factors both in class projects and teaching situations and be exposed to and analyze curricula of various school districts. Students will apply concepts to actual curriculum writing. FA.

ED 650. Language and Culture. (3)
Language and Culture will explore norms, features, and traditions that influence language learning within the educational environment. It will examine contemporary cultures prevalent in the United States and identify educational differences caused by a multiplex of factors including culture, language, ethnicity, gender, socio-economics, and education. The course will provide teachers with specific strategies for working with English Language Learners and for differentiating instruction to meet the needs of English Language Learners in heterogeneous classrooms. The course will review research concerning the reduction of challenges associated with the presence... of language and cultural differences both in schools and in society. FA.

ED 651. Modern Grammar and Linguistics. (3)
Linguistic approaches to the study of language and usage, with traditional grammar as a foundation. Includes semantics, syntax, phonology, morphology, and language variations (dialects). The course will give particular attention to English and comparative linguistics. FA.

ED 652. Methods of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. (3)
Instructional methods and techniques for teaching vocabulary, reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual literacy skills to ESL/EFL learners. Instructional techniques are critiqued as to their usefulness with different groups of language learners. Field-based component required. SP.

ED 654. Materials, Design & Assessments for English Language Learners. (3)
An examination of the principles of course design for language teaching including curriculum design, syllabus design, lesson design, materials design, and test/assessment instrument design. Different assessment instruments and techniques to be used with second language learners. Prerequisite: ED 652. Field-based component required. SP.

ED 656. Advanced Literature For Youth. (3)
A course designed to help teachers explore the wide variety of children’s and adolescent literature available for use in the classroom. The course will introduce narratives with bibliotherapeutic potential, high interest/low readability literature, literature to help young people make affective connections, literature for use in thematic studies, and literature to explore diverse cultures. Special emphasis on multicultural literature. SU.

ED 657. Teaching Adult Language Learners. (3)
Principles for organizing and administrating an adult ESL program in a community-based or academic setting. Instructional methods and techniques for teaching and assessing adult ESL/EFL learners. Meets the capstone requirement for the TESL program. Must be taken concurrently with ED 696. FA.

ED 680. Special Topics: Issues in Education. (1-3)
This course will offer a series of intensive classes on topics dealing with current issues such as site-based management, teacher as instructional leader, and group process techniques. This class will utilize outside experts as instructors along with regular faculty. It will provide an opportunity for students to choose topics of particular interest and use for them. FA, SP, SU.

ED 684. Effective Instruction. (3)
The course includes the advanced study and implementation of learning theory, including motivation, reinforcement, lesson design, transfer, practice, and higher level thinking skills. SU.

ED 695. ESOL Practicum. (3)
Supervised clinical experience in teaching ESOL in a K-12 situation as appropriate to the individual student’s program of study. This supervised clinical experience will occur under the direction of a university faculty member. Students must pass a background clearance check for this course. Fee required. Fee is non-refundable due to the background clearance check. Pre or corequisites: ED 652 and ED 654. Meets the capstone requirement for the ESOL certification program. Field-based component required. SP.

ED 696. TESL Practicum. (3)
Supervised clinical experience in teaching ESL to adult students as appropriate to the individual student’s program of study. This supervised clinical experience will occur under the direction of a university faculty member. Must be taken concurrently with ED 657. Field-based component required. FA.

Master of Science in Psychology Degree Programs

The Psychology Department offers two Master of Science degrees and one graduate level certificate. The degrees include Counseling Psychology and General Psychology.

The graduate certificate is in Child and Adolescent Counseling. This certificate requires 12 credit hours in the respective area of specialization and can be taken independent of enrollment in any graduate degree program.

The graduate psychology programs of Avila University are part of a values-based community of learning which respects the worth and dignity of all persons. Within this context, we are committed to the scientist-practitioner model to:

- Train master’s-level counseling psychologists and counselors, for the delivery of services in a variety of settings;
- Prepare graduates for advanced study at the doctoral level; and
- Provide a source for continuing professional education.

These purposes are accomplished through rigorous courses of study that focus on the integration of psychological theory and application. Each program’s curricula are designed around sets of Educational Outcomes that specify the knowledge and skills students are expected to demonstrate upon graduation. Successful graduates will demonstrate an understanding of people and situations they can expect to encounter in their professional lives.

As stated elsewhere in this catalog, students applying to the graduate psychology programs may be eligible for transfer credit. If a student is admitted into a graduate psychology program and then transfers into another program within the Psychology Department, the student’s transcript will be reevaluated for potential transfer credit into the new program. A minimum of 24 additional, non-duplicative credit hours must be taken for any Master’s Degree.

Master of Science in Counseling Psychology

The Master of Science in Counseling Psychology (MSCP) is a 60-credit degree program designed to help graduates meet the Kansas and Missouri state educational requirements for licensure as a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) and Kansas state requirements for licensure as a Licensed Masters-Level Psychologist (LMLP).

MSCP Educational Outcomes:
In addition to the general degree requirements stated elsewhere in this university catalog, Master of Science in Counseling Psychology students will be expected to meet the following program outcomes.

1. Scholarship
   This outcome includes development of a thorough grounding in theoretical/conceptual foundations of psychology, the ability to apply knowledge (theory to practice), the ability to describe relevant biological/physiological and social psychological information that would be helpful in understanding individuals, and the ability to understand and use statistics and research design in psychology. This outcome also includes the ability to write in a clear, well-organized manner and to speak and present material in an audience-appropriate manner.

2. Professional Behavior
   This outcome relates to the ability to comport oneself professionally at all times, including the ability to maintain appropriate boundaries, to give and accept feedback, and to analyze one’s own needs, values, strengths, weaknesses, feelings and motivations. It also involves behaving in accordance with academic and professional ethical standards.

3. Professional Practice
   This outcome relates to the use of appropriate receptive and expressive counseling skills. Receptive skills include the ability to establish rapport and communicate empathy; attend to the client; adapt terminology to the language level of the client; appropriately paraphrase client messages; verbally and nonverbally demonstrate genuine concern for others; and reflect feelings expressed verbally and nonverbally by the client.

   Expressive counseling skills include the ability to ask open-ended questions when possible and closed-ended questions when necessary; communicate in specific and concrete, rather than in general and abstract terms; use constructive confrontational skills when appropriate; communicate information about individuals and families in ways that would be most useful to outside entities such as vocational counselors, psychiatrists, court judges, or family members; engage in genuine self-disclosure of personal thoughts and feelings when appropriate; and use group process skills appropriately.

4. Individual Differences
   This outcome includes the understanding and application of theoretical and practical knowledge about individual differences; the integration of cultural, national, ethnic, socioeconomic, religious, sexual orientation, and similarly diverse backgrounds and characteristics; and the tolerance of diversity.

MSCP Outcomes Assessment:
The outcomes for the Master of Science in Counseling Psychology degree will be assessed through a combination of written and performance examinations and assignments, in addition to self, peer, instructor, internship supervisor, and psychology faculty evaluations. These outcomes will be outlined in detail in individual course syllabi. Students may also obtain a copy of these outcomes in the Graduate Psychology Student Handbook.

MSCP Admission Requirements
The applicant seeking admission to the program must:
1. Have earned a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution;
2. Complete all parts of the written application, including statement of purpose/letter of intent;
3. Submit two letters of recommendation;
4. Submit official transcripts of all previous college work at the undergraduate and graduate level (when appropriate). Please note that no more than 15 hours of credit can be transferred from another institution;
5. Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale;
6. Have prerequisite undergraduate training in psychology:
   • a major or minor degree in Psychology, or
   • completed coursework in General, Developmental, Social and Abnormal Psychology.

7. If a student does not meet the above prerequisite requirements they must complete a graduate level course in Advanced General Psychology with a grade of “B” or better prior to or concurrent with beginning graduate classes.

8. Provide evidence that the applicant is a “person who merits public trust” as required by law in both Missouri and Kansas. A background check will be required of all students in order to be eligible for candidacy (see Counseling Candidacy below) and a second background check will be completed prior to the first semester of Internship;

9. Adhere to the American Counseling Association’s Code of Ethics; and
10. Behave in a professional manner at all times, both inside and outside the classroom.

Admission Appeal
Should a student wish to appeal the admission decision he/she must submit a written request to the Director of Admission of the appropriate admitting office. Grounds for the appeal must be contained in the appeal request. Standard grounds for an appeal include:

a. The decision was based on inaccurate information;
b. New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application

Appeals on admission decisions will be considered for up to one semester after the term the student was denied. After
The Master of Science in Counseling Psychology program requires 60 hours of graduate coursework. Students must complete within seven years, maintaining a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0. Students may take the Counseling Practicum after becoming Counseling Candidates in the program and meeting all prerequisite requirements. Students who pass Practicum and complete a second background check through the Family Care Safety Registry will be eligible for Internship. Interns are required to accumulate 750-1000 clock hours of experience (6 credit hours) over a period of at least two semesters in order to graduate.

MSCP Counseling Candidacy

To be eligible for candidacy, a student must have completed at least 15 credit hours at Avila with a minimum 3.0 grade point average. Students initiate the candidacy process by completing an application and self-evaluation. A comprehensive background check must also be completed. The department will identify specific classes where instructor evaluations are completed for each student. Once all candidacy criteria are met, the Counseling Candidate will be notified. The Department of Psychology determines for which courses a grade of “C” is allowed; and has not yet taken Practicum.

Student Status within the MSCP Graduate Program

Student in Good Standing

- Has successfully met all entrance requirements;
- Has maintained an overall grade point average of 3.0 or better with no grade below “C.” Only 12 hours of “C” grade are allowed in the Counseling Psychology program. The Department of Psychology determines for which courses a grade of “C” is allowed; and
- Has not yet taken Practicum.

Student on Probation

a. Newly admitted MSCP students may be classified as “probationary” if any portion of their entrance requirements is less than satisfactory. The probationary student must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.0 for the first 15 hours of graduate coursework. The student will be eligible for reevaluation at the end of that period, at which time they can apply for candidacy status (see Counseling Candidacy above).

b. A student may change status from “Student in Good Standing” to “Student on Probation” if any of the following criteria are met: overall grade point average falls below 3.0, the student received a grade of “D” or lower during any semester, or the student has been placed on a remediation plan.

c. Students on probation have 9 credit hours in which to return their grade point average to 3.0 or above to regain “Good Standing.” Failure to raise their grade point average may lead to dismissal from the program.

MSCP Capstone

The members of the graduate faculty of the Counseling Psychology program at Avila University believe that students graduating with a Master of Science degree should have a sound grasp of psychological theory, allowing them to develop:
- an understanding of people and situations they might encounter in their professional lives; and
- a course of action with regard to these people and situations.

It is our contention that theory provides the necessary insight to good counseling. Graduate students are expected to be able to articulate that theory, both orally and in writing, in a paper that is presented to the graduate faculty during the last semester of internship.

MSCP Professional Conduct

Students in the MSCP program are expected to conduct themselves as professionals-in-training both inside and outside the classroom. We encourage and expect students to treat others (including classmates and instructors) with sensitivity and dignity. Impairment, incompetence, ethical misconduct, academic dishonesty in any form, or other problematic behavior may be identified and addressed in a variety of ways and by a variety of persons, including but not limited to students, faculty, supervisors, clients, and/or members of the community. If the behaviors or attitudes are egregious, the student may be dismissed immediately. If the behaviors or attitudes are less severe, they will be discussed in a confidential meeting with the student’s faculty advisor and/or Clinical Director and/or other professionals-in-training.

MSCP Internship

The internship experience allows students to apply in practice what they have learned in the program at a mental health facility of their choosing, with on-site supervision. Interns are required to accumulate 750-1000 clock hours of experience (6 credits) over a period of at least two semesters. In addition, interns meet as a group once per week with the Avila internship supervisors to review progress.
departmental faculty/staff (overseen by the Clinical Director and/or Department Chair) who will make a plan for remediation in a specified time frame. During that time, the student will be placed on probation. At the end of the stated period, the student can return to Student in Good Standing or Candidate Status, continue on probation, or be dismissed depending upon the ability to successfully complete the corrective action. Students may appeal this process at any time. For further details about the Professional Conduct policy, consult the Graduate Psychology Student Handbook.

MSCP Licensure
While the MSCP program meets the Kansas and Missouri state educational requirements, graduation does not guarantee licensure eligibility. Certain requirements specific to a particular state, poor licensure exam results, criminal activity, and/or other applicant behavior and restrictions may render a graduate ineligible for licensure.

MSCP Required Courses:
PY 601, 605, 612, 615, 621, 625, 630, 635 or 645, 650, 655, 660, 665, 685, 693, 695, 698 and nine hours of approved elective credit, for a total of 60 credit hours.

Master of Science in General Psychology
MSCP Program
The Master of Science in General Psychology is a 36-credit degree program that provides students with a solid foundation of the diverse research, theory, and practices of psychology. The MSGP degree is designed for students interested in preparing for doctoral programs in psychology, as well as for students interested in pursing careers in non-clinical settings.

MSGP Educational Outcomes and Assessment:
The General Psychology program relies on the same Scholarship, Professional Behavior, and Individual Differences educational outcomes and assessments described for the Counseling Psychology program. (See the MSCP Educational Outcomes and Outcomes Assessment sections for further information).

MSGP Admission Requirements
Applicant admission requirements for the Master of Science in General Psychology program are the same as those listed for the Counseling Psychology program with the following exceptions:
- No more than 9 hours of credit may be transferred from another institution.
- General Psychology students are not required to complete a background check or the Candidacy process.

Admission Appeal
Should a student wish to appeal the admission decision he/she must submit a written request to the Director of Admission of the appropriate admitting office. Grounds for the appeal must be contained in the appeal request. Standard grounds for an appeal include:
- The decision was based on inaccurate information;
- New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application

Appeals on admission decisions will be considered for up to one semester after the term the student was denied. After one semester, the student must re-apply for admission and complete the required admission process. Send the signed appeal letter and supporting material to:
- Avila University
  Attn: Director of Graduate Psychology Admission
  11901 Wornall Road
  Kansas City, MO 64145
The University official/committee reviewing the appeal will communicate the final decision to the student.

MSGP Degree Requirements
The Master of Science in General Psychology degree requires 36 hours of graduate coursework that students must complete within seven years, maintaining a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0.

MSGP Required Courses:
PY 601, 610, 612, 621, 625, 650, 655, 698, 699, and a choice of PY 615, 635, or 645, plus six hours of approved elective credit, for a total of 36 credit hours.

Student Status within the MSGP Graduate Program
Student in Good Standing
- Has successfully met all entrance requirements; and
- Has maintained an overall grade point average of 3.0 or better with no grade below “C.” Only 9 hours of “C” grade are allowed in the General Psychology program. The Department of Psychology determines for which courses a grade of “C” is allowed.

Student on Probation
a. Newly admitted MSGP students may be classified as “probationary” if any portion of their entrance requirements is less than satisfactory. The probationary student must maintain a 3.0 grade point average for the first 9 hours of graduate coursework. The student will be eligible for reevaluation at the end of that period.
b. A student may change status from “Student in Good Standing” to “Student on Probation” if any of the following criteria are met: overall grade point average falls below 3.0, the student received a grade of “D” or lower during any semester, or the student has been placed on a remediation plan.
c. Students on probation have 9 credit hours in which to return their grade point average to 3.0 or above to regain “Good Standing.” Failure to raise their grade point average may lead to dismissal from the program.

Certificate in Graduate Psychology
The Department of Psychology offers a certificate in Child and Adolescent Counseling. This certificate requires 12-credit hours and can be taken independent of enrollment in any graduate degree program.

Child and Adolescent Counseling Certificate
Course requirements: PY 620, 621, 641, and 661 (at least 3 credits each), for a total of 12 credit hours. Both 641 and 661 can be taken as one-hour intensive courses.

GRADUATE PSYCHOLOGY COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

PY 600. Advanced General Psychology. (3)
This course is designed to provide students with an overview of the major areas of psychology. As a research-oriented, applications-relevant approach to the discipline, it will also promote the critical, receptive and expressive communication and thinking skills that define a Master’s-level candidate.

PY 601. Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences. (3)
This course is designed as an introductory course in statistical analysis. The development of a conceptual understanding of how to interpret statistics will be emphasized as well as an understanding of statistical procedures. Topics will include central tendency, variability, correlation, regression, hypothesis testing, and analysis of variance.

PY 605. Essential Counseling Skills. (3)
This course introduces students to a multicultural model of effective helping skills, including didactic and experiential components, and emphasizes basic attention skills as the foundation of effective listening.

PY 610. Personality Development. (3)
This course compares and contrasts the major themes of personality development. Constructs from the psychoanalytic, cognitive, behavioral, biological, sociocultural and humanistic movements will be employed to analyze individuals’ adjustments from birth through adulthood.

PY 612. Advanced Cognitive Processes. (3)
This course provides an overview of cognitive processes, such as attention, language, memory, and decision making. Prerequisite: PY 650.

PY 615. Career Development. (3)
This course investigates historical foundations of the career development movement, and explores major career development theories and their applications in a counseling setting. Topics include vocational choice theory, career decision-making processes, career development exploration techniques, and assessment instruments. Fee required.

PY 620. Family Systems: Theory and Treatment. (3)
This course surveys the fundamental processes of systems functioning and application of general theory to formulations of family development. Therapeutic interventions with disordered families will be explored. A systematic investigation of particular approaches to family function/dysfunction utilizing multi-generational viewpoints, structural, and solution-focused models will also be explored.

PY 621. Advanced Developmental Psychology. (3)
This course focuses on the study of physical, cognitive, social, personality, brain, and emotional development across the lifespan. The role of the environment and special issues also will be included.

PY 622. Substance Abuse. (3)
This course serves as an introduction to understanding addiction and substance abuse. Various theoretical models of addiction will be explored along with a brief overview of associated treatment methods. Self-help approaches will be included.

PY 625. Research Design. (3)
This course focuses on understanding and evaluating empirical research, and acquaints the student with various research designs including qualitative, and quantitative methods commonly used in psychological research. Prerequisite: PY 601.

PY 630. Theories of Counseling. (3)
This course introduces students to theories of counseling and psychotherapy. It includes an orientation to professional practice and emphasizes a multicultural approach to counseling and therapy. Prerequisite: PY 605.

PY 635. Individual Intelligence Assessment. (3)
This course requires students to administer and interpret a series of individual intelligence tests for adults, adolescents, and children, and to produce basic psychological testing reports. Primary emphasis will be given to tests developed by Wechsler. Prerequisite: PY 601 or advisor approval. Fee required.

PY 641. Topics in Abnormal Child and Adolescent Psychology. (1-3)
This course explores the major behavior disorders of children and adolescents. The etiology, characteristics and treatment options for these disorders will be studied. Developmental and systemic issues will also be considered. This course can be repeated for up to six credit hours. Prerequisite: PY 621 or advisor approval.

PY 645. Personality Assessment. (3)
This course will provide the student with a basic understanding of the fundamentals of psychological testing, including factors critical in the selection and interpretation of instruments. The students will gain a broad knowledge of instruments used in the assessment of personality and psychodiagnostic disorders. Students will learn to administer, score, interpret and integrate test, and to write reports. Fee required.

PY 647. Applied Experimental Psychology. (1)
This course is intended as an apprenticeship in psychological research. Through discussion, readings and hands-on experiences, the student will learn about how to conduct research, from initial planning stages to data collection and analysis, writing up results, and submitting to conferences and academic journals. The course can be repeated for additional credit. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Fee required.

PY 650. Biological Bases of Behavior. (3)
This course explores the relationship between biology and human experience. Topics include the organization and development of the nervous system, genetics, memory, consciousness, perception, movement, and emotion.
PY 655. Advanced Social Psychology. (3)
This course explores social cognitive processes, personal relationships and interpersonal processes. In addition, the course examines professional considerations of multi-culturalism and diversity, including gender, age, race, ethnicity, physical ability, sexual orientation and socio-economic status.

PY 656. Multicultural Counseling. (3)
This course promotes sensitivity to historical and current issues in counseling service delivery for culturally, ethnically and socioeconomically diverse populations.

PY 660. Theories & Methods of Group Counseling. (3)
This course focuses on the structure and dynamics of the group treatment process. Students will be exposed to the important elements of selection, grouping, and choice of leadership style. General techniques of group practice applications to specific populations will be discussed. Prerequisites: PY 605 and PY 630.

PY 661. Topics in Counseling with Children and Adolescents. (1-3)
This course explores theories, methods, and techniques of counseling with children and adolescents. Developmental, social and contextual issues also will be discussed. This course can be repeated for up to six credit hours. Prerequisite: PY 621 or advisor approval.

PY 665. Differential Diagnosis of Mental Disorders. (3)
This course provides a thorough familiarization with the current Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM). Students will be able to recognize indicators of psychiatric disorders in order to appraise individual differences, diagnose when appropriate, and communicate these impressions effectively with other professionals. Prerequisite: PY 698.

PY 680. Selected Topics. (3)
This course provides current information on a selected topic in the field of psychology.

PY 685. Counseling Practicum. (3)
This course will teach students to understand and apply basic interventions in counseling. Students will learn to assess client dynamics, keep case notes, present cases to other professionals, and refine and apply the elements of ethical professional behavior, emphasizing the maintenance of confidentiality. Prerequisites: PY 605, PY 630, and PY 693 as well as Candidate status.

PY 693. Ethics and Professional Development. (3)
The primary academic objectives of this course include the introduction and developing mastery of the following areas: the legal and ethical concepts and standards governing the Master-level counseling and psychology professions; the qualities related to what is considered "good practice" and professional conduct; development of skills in recognizing and forming a course of action when faced with ethical dilemmas; research of the national and community professional resources available to the counseling and psychological professions; the process of functioning as a professional as part of a team; the use of interpersonal skills to create a team product; and technological literacy related to the use of a course management system in addition to collecting high quality research resources. Prerequisites: PY 605 and 9 hours completed in the program and Prerequisite/ Corequisite: PY 630.

PY 695. Internship. (1-6)
Students are required to spend 750-1000 clock-hours working in a responsible, supervised capacity in an outside professional placement. Internship must extend to two or more semesters. Prerequisite: PY 685.

PY 698. Advanced Abnormal Psychology. (3)
This course focuses on the current paradigms used to understand behavioral and mental disorders and dysfunctions, including the etiology and social implications of mental disorders. Treatment modalities considered most effective in the treatment of each disorder will be explored. This is a theory-to-practice course taught using a multicultural perspective.

PY 699. Master's Project. (1-4)
This course provides an opportunity for graduate students to participate in the planning, implementation, and communication of an application project related to their area of interest, with an emphasis on current theory and practice in their chosen research or apprenticeship experience. Prerequisites: PY 601, PY 625, a minimum of 15 hours in the program, and permission of instructor. Fee and Family Care Safety Registry background check may be required.

Master of Arts in Management
The Master of Arts in Management program is a 37-credit degree designed to meet the needs of working adults and develop communication, teamwork, leadership and management skills. The program focuses on the behavioral skills of management and applying those skills to today’s organizations. Concentrations in both fundraising and project management are available.

Management Educational Outcomes
In addition to the general degree requirements stated earlier in this university catalog, Master of Arts in Management students will be expected to meet the following educational outcomes, which will be assessed in the courses mentioned in parentheses.

- Integrate management theory and practice to meet organizational goals (MG 688, MG 670).
- Effectively communicate and collaborate with others (MG 650, MG 675).
- Develop skills of leadership (MG 688, MG 650, MG 675).
- Present and implement solutions to address business problems (MG 630, MG 670).
- Distinguish ethical aspects of managerial decisions (MG 605, MG 688).
- Identify and secure resources necessary to solve business problems (MG 601, MG 630).
Management Outcomes Assessment:
Summative outcomes for the Master of Arts in Management degree will be assessed in the Applied Research capstone course in which students will apply the concepts, theories and research from earlier classes in the program to a real-life project with an organization or business in the area. Students will present the results of their projects to the clients from that organization in both oral and written format. The clients for the project will assess the project based upon the above criteria. In addition, professionals in the management field and faculty in the program will assess the written portion of the final reports. The Summative assessment occurs yearly. Formative outcomes are assessed in individual courses noted in parentheses above as students move through the program. Students may obtain a copy of the assessment plan and the timetable for assessing the formative outcomes in the School of Professional Studies (i.e., Avila Advantage) Office.

Management Admissions Requirements
The applicant seeking admission to the program must:
1. Have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution;
2. Complete all parts of the written application, including an essay and resume;
3. Complete an admission interview;
4. Submit two letters of recommendation;
5. Submit official transcripts of all previous college work at the undergraduate and graduate level (when appropriate). Please note that no more than 9 hours of graduate credit can be transferred from another institution.
6. Have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the last 60 hours of undergraduate work, for the cumulative undergraduate grade point average or for nine or more hours of graduate work (see Student Status section, Probationary Status, below).

Admission Appeal
Should a student wish to appeal the admission decision he/she must submit a written request to the Director of Admission of the appropriate admitting office. Grounds for the appeal must be contained in the appeal request. Standard grounds for an appeal include:

- The decision was based on inaccurate information;
- New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application.

Appeals on admission decisions will be considered for up to one semester after the term the student was denied. After one semester, the student must re-apply for admission and complete the required admission process.

Send the signed appeal letter and supporting material to:
Avila University
Attn: Director of Admission, Avila Advantage
11901 Wornall Road
Kansas City, MO 64145

The University official/committee reviewing the appeal will communicate the final decision to the student.

Management Degree Requirements
The Master of Arts in Management degree requires 37 hours of graduate coursework that students must complete within seven years, maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 in order to graduate.

Student Status within the Management Graduate Program
- Student in Good Standing
- Has successfully met all entrance requirements;
- Has maintained an overall GPA of 3.0 or better with no grade below “C” (only two courses with “C” grades are allowed; students may retake a class with a grade below a C once);
- Probationary Status
  - Newly admitted Management students may be classified as “probationary” if any portion of their entrance requirements is less than satisfactory. The probationary student must maintain a 3.0 GPA for the first 6 hours of graduate coursework (7 hours if taking FR 600 or PM 600) in order to remain in the program.
  - A student may change status from “Student in Good Standing” to “Student on probation” if any of the following criteria are met: overall GPA falls below 3.0, or student receives a grade of “C” or lower in any course.
  - Students on probation have 6 credit hours (7 hours if taking FR 600 or PM 600) to return their GPA to 3.0 or above to regain “Good Standing.” Failure to raise the GPA may lead to dismissal from the program.

Professional Conduct
Students in the Management program are expected to conduct themselves as professionals-in-training both inside and outside the classroom. We encourage and expect students to treat others (including classmates and instructors) with sensitivity and dignity. Impairment, incompetence, ethical misconduct, and/or problematic behavior may be identified and addresses in a variety of ways and by a variety of persons, including but not limited to students, faculty, supervisors, clients, and/or members of the community. If student behaviors or attitudes are egregious, he or she may be dismissed immediately. If student behaviors or attitudes are less dire, they will be addressed in a confidential meeting with the student’s faculty advisor and/or Dean of the School of Professional Studies who will make a plan for remediation in an articulated time frame. At the end of the stated period, during which time the students would be placed on probation, he or she could return to Student in Good Standing status, continue on probation, or be dismissed depending upon the ability to successfully complete the corrective action. Students may appeal this process at any time.

Management Required Courses
Students are required to take the following courses: MG 601, MG 605, MG 630, MG 650, MG 670, MG 675, MG 688, and MG 695. In addition, students complete each of the courses in one of the following concentrations:

Concentrations:
- Management Core Courses
- Elective Courses
- Thesis or Capstone Project

MANAGEMENT COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

FR 600. Introduction to Fundraising & Donor Behavior. (1)
An introduction to the fundraising profession and the theoretical basis behind it. Topics include introduction to the nonprofit sector and to philanthropy in general, as well as fundraising ethics and best practices.

FR 610 – Direct and Interactive Marketing for Fundraising (3)
This course identifies trends, issues and giving patterns in direct marketing and e-marketing for fundraising. Focus on how to conduct a research-driven interactive marketing campaign.

FR 620. Strategic Fundraising Planning. (3)
This course covers fundraising audit purposes and procedures and the strategies inherent in mounting fundraising campaigns. Topics include donor retention and relationship marketing, principles of fundraising marketing research and best practices in fundraising tactics.

FR 635. Major and Planned Giving. (3)
This course helps students understand the role of planned giving within an organization’s overall fundraising efforts. The course focuses on the various tools used in planned giving and their impacts. Topics include major gift fundraising and bequests. Students will learn the specifics of designing proposals, balancing donor readiness with institutional needs.

FR 645 – Institutional Fundraising (3)
This course covers the significance of corporate support of the nonprofit sector. Students will explore types of corporate support and best practices in relation to each as well as forms of foundation fundraising, including sources of grant income.

MG/OD 601. Statistics. (3)
Designed to be an introductory course in statistical analysis. Emphasis will be on practical methods as well as on theory. Topics include central tendency, variability, correlation, regression, hypothesis testing and analysis of variance.

MG 605 - Ethics & Legal Environment (3)
This course explores the importance and significance of ethics, personal morality, corporate social responsibility and the legal issues surrounding them in an organizational context. Students will analyze management decisions from a legal, ethical, and social responsibility perspective.

MG 630 – Financial Decision Making for Managers (3)
This course is designed as a survey of, and overview of fundamental and intermediate statistical and financial concepts and techniques. The emphasis is primarily on the thought processes behind different types of analyses and secondarily on the mechanical execution of such analyses. The primary topics covered will blend key concepts from three disciplines: statistics, finance, and decision science.

MG/OD 650. Strategic Communication. (3)
This course focuses on the interpersonal communication and leadership skills needed for effective organizational development. The course emphasizes conflict management, presentation skills, and informal writing, as well as important leadership skills ranging from giving and receiving feedback to performance appraisals. The course is designed as a “train the trainers” course, enabling learners to later pass on skills to consulting clients, co-workers, and employees.

MG 670. Organizational Psychology and Behavior. (3)
This course focuses on applying organizational theories in the workplace setting. After completing this course the student should be able to diagnose organizational problems and develop coherent action plans that address the problems, not just the symptoms of the problem. During facilitated case discussion, class assignments and group projects the students will develop an overall appreciation of the dynamics of the organizational cultural and political systems at work and use those systems to manage organizational change with success. This course will focus on group processes to analyze areas of organizational change and problem-solving. Students will apply the concepts learned in the reading and learn how to use those concepts to solve real world problems promoting organization success.

MG/OD 675. Team Development & Facilitation. (3)
This course examines the processes involved in groups and teams including their development, evolution, establishment of norms, handling dissension and problem solving.

MG/OD 688. Leadership and Influence Processes. (3)
This is a course about leadership theory specifically in the context of management and organizations. In this course, you will survey the broad spectrum of leadership theories and the research that led toward the theoretical conclusions. You will learn to appreciate the strength of the theories but understand the limitations so that as practitioners you can apply your own set of principles based on what we do know about leadership.

MG 695. Applied Research Project (3)
This course is the capstone of the M.A. in Management program. It requires the completion of a faculty-approved project that demonstrates professional competence. The project is informed by and contributes to the appropriate discipline literature. It is comparable to a project a student would complete as an internal or external professional. The purpose of the Applied Research Project is the application and demonstration of skill and proficiency as a direct result of student learning accomplished throughout the master’s program and in their work experience and integrating that with a knowledge base that provides evidence of the ability to research and give meaning to theory and assumptions.

PM 600. Introduction to Project Management (1)
This course is an overview of the main components of Project Management, how they flow, project metrics and how to beat a project failure rate of 67%. The class will look at key success issues, various PM approaches used today, including traditional IPECC, Agile, and Scrum. Students will become familiar with key project metrics, do some basic calculations and take away a spreadsheet for use in their place of business. Students will demonstrate the critical success factors of balancing hard and soft skills essential for the Project Manager’s success. Finally – the class takes a look at the PMP exam using sample questions and preparation approaches.

PM 672. The Practice of Project Management. (3)
This course focuses on the completion of a project with the intent of demonstrating the critical success factors to the class. Students will become familiar with key project metrics, do some basic calculations, and take away a spreadsheet for use in their place of business. Students will demonstrate the critical success factors of balancing hard and soft skills essential for the Project Manager’s success. Finally – the class takes a look at the PMP exam using sample questions and preparation approaches.

PM 673. Tools and Technology of Project Management. (3)
This course is a survey of project management tools and the use of technology application in the management process. Prerequisite: PM 672.

PM 674. Case Study and Application of Project Management. (3)
This course focuses on the completion of a case study simulation to develop a solution and supporting project plan. Prerequisite: PM 673.

PM 676. Management Technology and Strategy. (3)
The purpose of the course is to explore at a macro level the fundamental relationship of technology and strategic goal setting as the essential source of most projects within the corporate operating space. As seen in the “value chain model” popularized by Dr. Michael Porter, the technology layer is a key “support activity” without which most of the outflowing corporate actions—leading to margin, or profit, could not be accomplished.

PM 677. Six Sigma. (3)
Six Sigma requires the practitioner, green belt, black belt and manager, to use a complex set of skills and tools. These skills not only spell success for the individual but, most importantly, success for the business enterprise. This course acquaints the student with these well established practices allowing them to implement the methods leading to quality and process improvement in the business space today.

Master of Science in Organizational Development Psychology

The Master of Science in Organizational Development (MSOD) psychology program is a 37-credit degree designed to provide graduates with practical, empirically tested principles, tools, and methodologies to manage change in a way that encourages and strengthens individual, team, and organizational potential. As a university member of the Organizational Development Network, our program

MSOD Educational Outcomes

In addition to the general degree requirements stated earlier in this university catalog, Master of Science in Organizational Development Psychology students will be expected to meet the following educational outcomes:

1. Understand how individual, group and organizational processes and structure influence behavior in organizations.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of how to use each phase of the Action Research Model.
3. Master the principles, theories, and concepts in organization design and development.
4. Apply knowledge from the foundation courses and skills developed in the intensives in real time interaction with clients guided by faculty.
5. Develop skills in managing complexity and influencing high performance in larger organizations.
6. Gain insights into the impact of globalization and culture on today’s organizations.
7. Demonstrate effective professional, ethical and interactional communication skills.

MSOD Outcomes Assessment:

The outcomes for the Master of Science in Organizational Development (MSOD) Psychology degree will be assessed through a combination of written and performance examinations and assignments, in addition to self, peer, instructor, supervisor (where applicable), and faculty evaluations. These outcomes will be outlined in detail in individual course syllabi.

MSOD Admissions Requirements

The applicant seeking admission to the program must:

1. Have a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution;
2. Complete all parts of the written application, including an essay and resume;
3. Complete an admission interview;
4. Submit two letters of recommendation;
5. Submit official transcripts of all previous college work at the undergraduate and graduate level (when appropriate). Please note that no more than 9 hours of graduate credit can be transferred from another institution.

Have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the last 60 hours of undergraduate work, or for nine or more hours of graduate coursework (7 hours if taking OD 600) in order to graduate.

6. Have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the last 60 hours of undergraduate work, for the cumulative undergraduate grade point average or for nine or more hours of graduate work (see Student Status section, Probationary Status, below).

Admission Appeal

Should a student wish to appeal the admission decision he/she must submit a written request to the Director of Admission of the appropriate admitting office. Grounds for the appeal must be contained in the appeal request. Standard grounds for an appeal include:

a. The decision was based on inaccurate information;

b. New information or facts have come to light that were not presented at the original review of application

Appeals on admission decisions will be considered for up to one semester after the term the student was denied. After one semester, the student must re-apply for admission and complete the required admission process.

Send the signed appeal letter and supporting material to:

Avila University
Attn: Director of Admission, Avila Advantage
11901 Wornall Road
Kansas City, MO 64145

The University official/committee reviewing the appeal will communicate the final decision to the student.

MSOD Degree Requirements

The Master’s degree in Organizational Development requires 37 hours of graduate coursework that students must complete within seven years, maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 in order to graduate.

Student Status within the MSOD Graduate Program

- Student in Good Standing
- Has successfully met all entrance requirements;
- Has maintained an overall GPA of 3.0 or better with no grade below “C” (only two courses with “C” grades are allowed; students may retake a class with a grade below a C once);
- Probationary Status
  - Newly admitted MSOD students may be classified as “probationary” if any portion of their entrance requirements is less than satisfactory. The probationary student must maintain a 3.0 GPA for the first 6 hours of graduate coursework (7 hours if taking OD 600) in order to remain in the program.
  - A student may change status from “Student in Good Standing” to “Student on probation” if any of the following criteria are met: overall GPA falls below 3.0, or student receives a grade of “C” or lower in any course.
  - Students on probation have 6 credit hours (7 hours if taking OD 600) to return their GPA to 3.0 or above to regain “Good Standing.” Failure to raise the GPA may lead to dismissal from the program.
- "Probationary" if any portion of their entrance requirements is less than satisfactory. The probationary student must maintain a 3.0 GPA for the first 6 hours of graduate coursework (7 hours if taking OD 600) in order to remain in the program.
  - A student may change status from “Student in Good Standing” to “Student on probation” if any of the following criteria are met: overall GPA falls below 3.0, or student receives a grade of “C” or lower in any course.
  - Students on probation have 6 credit hours (7 hours if taking OD 600) to return their GPA to 3.0 or above to regain “Good Standing.” Failure to raise the GPA may lead to dismissal from the program.

MSOD Applied Research or Internship Project

The members of the graduate faculty of the Organizational Development program at Avila University believe that students graduating with a Master of Science degree should have a sound grasp of psychological theory and the methodologies that provide the foundation for effective organization interventions. Our graduate students are given an option regarding how they would like to articulate a theory-to-action in their capstone experience. Students may choose to write a thesis, which could address either a theoretical or applied research issue, or they may invest in an applied internship project at an organization of their choice. The course instructor must approve all projects prior to enrollment in the course.
Professional Conduct

Students in the MSOD program are expected to conduct themselves as professionals-in-training both inside and outside the classroom. We encourage and expect students to treat others (including classmates and instructors) with sensitivity and dignity. Impairment, incompetence, ethical misconduct, and/or problematic behavior may be identified and addresses in a variety of ways and by a variety of persons, including but not limited to students, faculty, supervisors, clients, and/or members of the community. If student behaviors or attitudes are egregious, he or she may be dismissed immediately. If student behaviors or attitudes are less dire, they will be addressed in a confidential meeting with the student’s faculty advisor and/or Dean of the School of Professional Studies who will make a plan for remediation in an articulated time frame. At the end of the stated period, during which time the students would be placed on probation, he or she could return to Student in Good Standing status, continue on probation, or be dismissed depending upon the ability to successfully complete the corrective action. Students may appeal this process at any time.

MSOD Required Courses

Students are required to take the following courses: OD 600, 601, 625, 630, 640, 660, 675, 691, and 695. In addition, students need to choose four of the following courses in related areas to finalize their degree:

- Executive Leadership Development: OD 650, 655, PY 678, 688
- Leadership Coaching: four courses in Leadership Coaching
- Strategic Human Resources: OD 679 or three courses in Strategic Human Resources

ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

OD 600. Introduction to Organizational Development. (1)
An introduction to the content and process guiding the work of organizational development professionals.

OD/MG 601. Statistics. (3)
Designed to be an introductory course in statistical analysis. Emphasis will be on practical methods as well as on theory. Topics include central tendency, variability, correlation, regression, hypothesis testing and analysis of variance.

OD 625. Practical Research: Planning and Designing. (3)
This practical research course is designed to teach action research as both a process and methodology. Emphasis will be placed on the development of skills that can be transferred to any organization as an internal or external consultant. Prerequisite: OD 600 & OD 640.

OD 630. Applications of Psychology in Organizations. (3)
This course focuses on the study of personality in the workplace. Psychological aspects of decision-making, social processes, and leadership will be explored. The interaction of individual, group, organizational, and environmental factors will be included.

OD 640. Organizational Development and Planned Change. (3)
An experiential approach to the study of change for the internal or external OD professional or organizational manager. Topics regarding consulting and motivating for high-performing systems include interpersonal interventions, team development, and continuous improvement processes. Prerequisite: OD 600.

OD/MG 650. Strategic Communication. (3)
This course focuses on the interpersonal communication and leadership skills needed for effective organizational development. The course emphasizes conflict management, presentation skills, and informal writing, as well as important leadership skills ranging from giving and receiving feedback to performance appraisals. The course is designed as a “train the trainers” course, enabling learners to later pass on skills to consulting clients, co-workers, and employees.

OD 655 – INNOVATION AND CREATIVITY (3)

This course will examine fundamental questions about the role of creativity and innovation in leadership and organization development. The course links creativity and innovation to the organization development practices and human resource programs including recruiting, staffing, benefits, compensation, and organization development interventions. Students discuss the importance of creativity and innovation for individuals, teams/groups, and organizations as a whole. The course will also examine the connection of creativity and innovation to problem solving, diversity, and organizational effectiveness.

OD 660. Organizational Analysis and Strategy. (3)

This course is first and foremost a course about “strategy” and about “managing for success.” The course centers on the theme that a company achieves sustained success if, and only if, its leaders (1) have an astute, timely strategic game plan for running the company and (2) implement and execute the plan with proficiency. The importance of how and why a well-conceived, well-executed strategy nearly always enhances a company’s long-term performance will be stressed.

OD/MG 675. Team Development & Facilitation. (3)

This course examines the processes involved in groups and teams including their development, evolution, establishment of norms, handling dissension and problem solving.

OD 678. Conflict Management Systems. (3)

This course focuses on an organizational growth strategy. It emphasizes the development of conflict management systems for organizations. Conflict management system design applies Organizational Development theory and processes in ways that transcend the management of conflict in an organization from a case by case basis of employee dissatisfaction to a strategic re-design of workplace processes in order to address and manage conflict on a systemic level.

OD 679. Training and Development. (3)

In the modern business world, professional organizations must adapt to rapidly changing conditions in order to survive. They must become learning organizations to be successful. Change management, transformation, training and development are all critical aspects of Organizational Development that help organizations adapt. Training and Development (T&D) in particular can be a key component of learning organizations especially if the T&D group uses progressive instructional design techniques that maximize proven learning theories and aligned with business imperatives. This course applies principles of instructional design and surveys modern trends and issues in learning theories, the use of technology in performance improvement, and how organizations use and align their T&D functions.

OD 680. Special Topics in Organizational Development. (1-3)

This course offers a series of one-credit hour weekend intensive classes on special OD topics.

OD/MG 688. Leadership and Influence Processes. (3)

This is a course about leadership theory specifically in the context of management and organizations. In this course, you will survey the broad spectrum of leadership theories and the research that led toward the theoretical conclusions. You will learn to appreciate the strength of the theories but understand the limitations so that as practitioners you can apply your own set of principles based on what we do know about leadership.

OD 691. Consulting Skills. (3)

This course focuses on how to intervene in a variety of organizational cultures for optimal diagnosis and implementation of change strategies. Prerequisites: OD 600, 601, 625, 630 and 640.

OD 695. Applied Research Project. (3)

This course is the capstone of the OD Program. It requires the completion of a faculty-approved project that demonstrates professional competence. Prerequisites: OD 600, 601, 625, 630, 640, and 691. Offered as CR/NC only.
