To Kill a Mockingbird

Based on the book by Harper Lee
Dramatized by Christopher Sergel

To Kill a Mockingbird is presented by special arrangement with Dramatic Publishing, Inc.

Avila University
College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences

Criminology
Dance
English
History
Music
Philosophy
Psychology
Religious Studies
Social Work
Sociology
Theatre
Women and Gender Studies

Faculty Scholarship

Dr. Teresa Lorenz-Do will be attending the ACTFL (American Council for the Teaching of Foreign Languages) Annual Convention World Languages Expo in San Diego, CA from November 19-21. She will also be attending the 26th Annual Graduate and Professional Symposium on Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian Literature, Language and Culture (Symposium titled: Crossroad Talks: Language and Literature in Active Contact Zones) at the University of Arizona, Tucson, from February 25-27, 2016.

Dr. Regina Staves was appointed by Governor Nixon to the Missouri Board for Professional Counselors this past August. On October 14-15, she attended a two-day Children’s Trust Fund Board meeting in Jefferson City. On October 30, Dr. Staves presented a workshop on Supervision of Counselors for the Missouri Mental Health Counseling Association. On November 2, she presented on Ethical Issues in Behavioral Health for New Directions Behavioral Health. On November 6-7, she will be attending a two-day Professional Counselor board meeting in Jefferson City.

Dr. Amy Milakovic, Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of English and Foreign Languages, wrote a paper titled “‘What Did You Do in the War, Mommy?’ Competing Constructs in the Women in Military Service for America Memorial,” which was recently published by the Rhetoric Society of America in the book, Rhetoric Across Borders. She also took part in a scholarly workshop on the topic of Human Rights, Civil Rights, and Global Citizenship, to increase global citizenship and collaborative scholarship among her students.

Dr. Carol Coburn will be in Le Puy, France from October 28-November 9, 2015 as part of a design team for the Hilton foundation project “Global Sisters of St. Joseph Cultural Diversity Project.”

Faculty Spotlight

Dr. Kelly L. Watson

Dr. Kelly L. Watson’s first book, Insatiable Appetites: Imperial Encounters with Cannibals in the North Atlantic World, was recently released by New York University Press as part of the Early American Places series. You can order it here: http://nyupress.org/books/9780814763476/

Madrigal Dinner

DECEMBER 10, 11 & 12
MADRIGAL DINNER • 6:00 PM
DINNER AT 6:30 PM, GOPPERT THEATRE

Upcoming Event

November 21 • 1 pm
AU Music @ American Jazz Museum
Historic 18th & Vine Jazz District • Kansas City, MO

Students from the AU Music Department will be performing at the American Jazz Museum in the historic 18th & Vine Jazz District in Kansas City, Missouri. Students will be singing jazz standards and other contemporary favorites. FREE ADMISSION!